

BIRTH CHART SUMMARY FOR PRINCE HARRY

SUN IN VIRGO

Your Birth Chart could be thought of as your personal Energy Map. It describes your character and personality and reveals areas of strength and weakness. It defines the different types of energy you are working with and explains how they complement or clash with one another.

This report offers interpretations for the Planetary Placements in your birth chart. Some themes will repeat themselves, showing that the same issue is being explored from a variety of viewpoints and perspectives. Some energies will contradict one another – explaining why there'll be times when you could feel that you are in conflict with yourself.

In my experience, it's important to recognise both the reoccurring themes and the contradictions within a horoscope. Birth Chart themes often give meaning and direction to the person's life as well as pointing to their true destiny (or destination). Birth Chart contradictions teach us to accept that we are not meant to be perfect. We are born to explore, to discover, to learn, to compromise, to grow and to evolve. Best of all, we're here to learn to love ourselves and to express ourselves freely, absolutely and unconditionally.

Your Birth Chart confirms that you are who you were born to be. You are in the right place, at the right time, doing the right thing. You are a Cosmic Being having a human adventure, enjoying this amazing experience called Life on Planet Earth!

I can finally say I'm free and if the questions led me here, then I am who I was born to be”

YOUR PERSONAL PLANETS IN ZODIAC SIGN & HOROSCOPE HOUSE

THE SUN IN YOUR BIRTH CHART REPRESENTS YOUR TRUE SELF, CHARACTER & POTENTIAL

YOUR SUN IS IN VIRGO

The Sun explains how you express your energies and reveals whether you find it easy or difficult to shine as an individual. It shows the type of energy that drives your life experience and describes the ways in which that energy is either free-flowing or frustrated. Your birth chart Sun can give valuable information about how you are influenced by important male role models in your life.

VIRGO IS RULED BY PLANET MERCURY Your character is influenced by the planet of information, giving you an aptitude for organising data. You are quick to understand what is needed in most situations. Your efficient administrative skills make you a very handy helper. You like to be of use to others and you offer your support in a modest, unassuming way. But you must watch out for a tendency to turn yourself into an unpaid servant and then resent the fact that people seem to be taking you for granted.

YOUR IDEAL ROLE MODELS are modest, hard-working and health-conscious. Males who are anxious, nervous or overly dutiful are a particularly negative influence for you.

ELEMENT OF VIRGO IS EARTH you have a realistic streak and a sensible attitude. You don't doubt your ability to find functional solutions to most problems, especially when you are dealing with practical issues. Your talents come in handy when there's something that needs sorting out, or when material matters are in a mess. QUALITY OF VIRGO IS MUTABLE you are flexible and versatile. You are great at multi-tasking and you have no problem with adapting to fit your circumstances. A tendency to spread yourself too thin would mean that you could find it difficult to maintain your energy levels and stay focused on your goals. But your flexibility will help you to bounce back and catch up with where you left off when you got distracted or felt drained.

THE PROS & CONS OF SUN IN VIRGO you are a precise, practical and industrious individual and it's important for you to feel useful. You are happy to be of service, but it's hard for you to sit back and enjoy a well-earned rest. Your innate modesty makes it difficult for you to accept compliments but you are very receptive to criticism and you worry about making mistakes. You are an intelligent, perceptive character but you can get bogged down in details. You won't feel fulfilled unless you have lived up to your job description and given that little bit extra. You could get so anxious about having everything in perfect order that the stress involved might create health problems. Pets could be your therapists as time spent with animals would probably have a soothing effect. You like to be busy and you prefer to work with systems and techniques that optimise your efficiency. You have a knack for matching the correct method to a task and you are a conscientious co-ordinator.

Birth Chart for Prince Harry born on 15 September 1984 at 16:20 local time in Paddington UK

THE THREE DECANS OF VIRGO Each zodiac sign is 30 degrees long and is divided into three Decans of 10 degrees each.

YOUR BIRTH DATE IS IN 3RD THE DECAN OF VIRGO influenced by TAURUS and Planet VENUS

Virgos of this Decan will probably be more relaxed and easy-going than the other two sections of the sign. They may also be the most interested in following regular and predictable daily routines that allow time to enjoy and digest meals. All Virgos like to feel they have completed tasks to the best of their ability but this type is particularly interested in doing things properly, to a high standard of workmanship. They are the ones who'll be most upset by any lack of harmony or consistency in the fine details of anything they accomplish.

The Venus influence on this kind of Virgo indicates a flair for setting up systems that make life easier and that build long-lasting peace and stability, both at home and in the workplace. 3RD Decan Virgos want to enjoy the process of carrying out their daily duties and they are prepared to put effort into acquiring skills and techniques that ensure they continue to do so.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR SUN will explain which area of your life is likely to be the most important for you in terms of allowing you to fulfil yourself and to express your full potential.

SUN IN 8TH HOUSE This position of the Sun suggests that you are a very competent manager and investor of wealth and other types of resources. You'll come into your own when faced with complex or challenging circumstances and your strength of character is ideal in roles where you are directing others. You have powerful gut instincts that enable you to detect the course that investment trends are likely to take. This gives you the ability to stay in control of the resources you have to spend, save or share. You take your commitment to others very seriously and you demand the same loyalty from your partners, whether they are personal and professional. However you are definitely not keen on setups that are too boring or easy to control, although you will stay involved so long as you can sense there's something to be salvaged or regenerated. But you are likely to walk out when things have stagnated or lost their magic as you are happiest in situations that keep you intrigued and on your mettle.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING THE SUN reveal more about how easy or difficult it is for you to express your true character with confidence & conviction.

- ✘ SUN TRINE MOON A sense of feeling comfortable and at home with yourself makes it easier for you to behave naturally. Respect for your own emotions, instincts, imagination & intuition helps you to express and fulfil your true potential.
- ✘ SUN SQUARE MARS Your compelling urge to get on creates the willingness to push hard to achieve your goals. But you may have a tendency to get disappointed and frustrated when things don't happen as quickly as they were expected to and this is when you can become pushy and impatient with yourself.
- ✘ SUN TRINE CERES This connection enhances your natural fertility, creativity and productivity, making it easier for you to express and fulfil your true potential

- ✘ SUN SQUARE NEPTUNE Your extreme sensitivity can make you vulnerable and susceptible to being overwhelmed by atmospheres. At times, life seems unreal, confusing and chaotic. As you do not have a strong sense of Self, it might difficult for you to focus on the fulfilment of your true potential.
- ✘ SUN QUINTILE SETTING SIGN (DESCENDANT) You have a remarkable ability to attract relationships that support you in your expression of your true potential. You are a master of the art of choosing partners who enable you to fulfil your individual potential.
- ✘ SUN TRINE BASE SIGN You have a sense of being in tune with your true purpose which helps to make you feel more settled and secure.
- ✘ SUN TRINE NORTH NODE Positive individual characteristics and a strong sense of Self make it easier for you to move forward and make progress on your journey along your Life Path.

THE MOON IN YOUR BIRTH CHART REPRESENTS YOUR SECRET SELF, INSTINCTS, EMOTIONS, FEELINGS AND MEMORIES

The Moon shows what comes naturally to you, without any conscious effort on your part, and it reveals what you need to feel comfortable and secure in life. The Moon describes your family background and the home you grew up in. It can give valuable information about how you'll be influenced by key female role models in your life.

YOUR MOON IS IN TAURUS, RULED BY PLANET VENUS The Venusian influence on your birth chart Moon gives you a good constitution, which should help to keep you physically healthy. Comfort and security are important to you. You are not particularly materialistic and your home doesn't have to be luxurious but it should provide you with a safe, familiar base from which to go out and face the world. You don't like being hurried and you need to be able to take things at your own pace. You dislike upheaval and you prefer that the world around you changes as little as possible. Your need to feel settled is so strong that you might develop rigid routines in an effort to control your environment, or make things stay as they are for ever. You are emotionally loyal and you prefer the company of people you feel you can rely on. Being let down or deceived by someone you value would be deeply upsetting.

YOUR IDEAL FEMALE ROLE MODELS are patient and resourceful. Women who are stubborn, pedantic and too concerned with their own comfort are a particularly negative influence for you.

TAURUS ELEMENT IS EARTH & QUALITY IS FIXED you are naturally calm and settled. You require a regular, reassuring rhythm that makes you feel comfortable and secure. Your needs are simple and your tastes are natural and down to earth. You are disturbed by frenetic atmospheres and you get upset if you are rushed or hurried. You can be soothed by music or by rhythmical movement.

YOUR FAMILY BACKGROUND & ANCESTRAL LINE benefit from the blessing of Venus. It's possible that you have inherited physical stamina and strength through your ancestral line. Practical ability could feature in your family history, which might include builders, bankers, artisans or artists with tangible talents. You probably come from a background that values patience, endurance, resourcefulness and routine and your upbringing will nurture or instil these qualities in you.

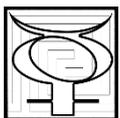

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR MOON will explain in which area of your life you are likely to be at your most creative and emotionally charged, and where you might be expressing characteristics, qualities and abilities that have been inherited through your ancestral line.

MOON IN 4TH HOUSE This position of the Moon suggests that your family background and ancestral history are very strong factors affecting your emotional wellbeing. While this is true for most of us, it is especially so for you. You need to know as much as possible about your origins, and about the ongoing state of affairs within your home environment, otherwise you'll feel troubled and insecure. A sure sign that you are upset about something - whether real or imagined - is when you retreat behind a defensive shield, becoming moody and withdrawn. Ideally, your home is somewhere you feel safe and comfortable, where you can come out of your shell and express your creative instincts on your own terms.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING THE MOON reveal more about your instincts, emotions, feelings and memories and determine how easy or difficult it is for you to feel comfortable and secure.

- ✘ MOON CONJUNCT CERES You have a strongly creative nature with an urge to nurture new life on all levels - physical, mental and emotional. But the impulse to produce can be wasteful and the instinct to protect can bring a tendency to care too much.
- ✘ MOON CONJUNCT BASE SIGN (IC) You have the ability to form a safe and comfortable home base wherever you are and wherever you go. Your family provides a foundation or starting point to grow out from. Your natural creativity is inherited through your ancestral line.
- ✘ MOON CONJUNCT NORTH NODE Your quest is to develop trust in your natural instincts, intuition, imagination and emotions as they hold key roles in the journey along your life path.

PLANET MERCURY IN YOUR BIRTH CHART REPRESENTS YOUR MIND, IDEAS & COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Mercury describes your childhood and early learning experiences, your relationship with other children (brothers & sisters, playmates, fellow pupils), with the people in your local neighbourhood, and those who taught you at school. Mercury gives useful insights into how you think and about how you understand, process and remember what you've learnt. It will also reveal more about your thought patterns and how you make connections between ideas. The position of Mercury in your birth chart will show what subjects and activities you are likely to be interested in.

YOUR MERCURY IS IN VIRGO and has an especially strong influence in one of its own Zodiac Signs suggesting that you like to have all the facts and figures at your fingertips before you voice an opinion. You are rather modest about your ideas and can get anxious about expressing them. Precision is a priority as you worry about making mistakes and you don't like to get things wrong. You are quick at processing data and classifying information. You usually only need to be told something once, although you might be shy about admitting that you haven't understood the facts the first time around. You would criticise your own comprehension skills before you questioned the way the material was communicated to you. You could find it difficult to say the word No in response to requests for your services. The thought of not being busy makes you nervous so you tend to say Yes to work, even though you have enough already. It's probably better for you to have too much to think about as your brain fills with nagging chatter if it doesn't have enough to keep it occupied.

VIRGO ELEMENT IS EARTH & QUALITY IS MUTABLE your mental processes are flexible and efficient. You have a real skill for organising information and for processing facts and figures. You have good hand-eye co-ordination which helps you fulfil practical tasks quickly and proficiently. You match techniques to tasks and you come up with systems to manage time effectively. You tend to be too modest about your own competence. Nagging concerns that you can't meet the deadlines or standards you have set yourself will follow you from cradle to grave, from classroom to boardroom.

YOUR EARLY ENVIRONMENT & EDUCATION Mercury's influence operating through the dutiful sign of Virgo suggests that your childhood environment has impressed you as industry-oriented. Its influence will lead you to see school as a place that prepares pupils for work. There's a certain amount of time allocated to play in the daily routine but activities are mainly geared towards processing information and acquiring skills, methods and techniques. You will be a conscientious pupil who worries if you think you are falling behind or not doing well enough and teachers shouldn't have to nag you about handing your homework in on time. You might show a tendency to organise younger siblings, school pals and playmates or to help them with their work. You could feel shy around older and bolder children.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR MIND PLANET MERCURY will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be most mentally active and fulfilled. Your ability to understand, process and communicate information will be expressed within this area of your life.

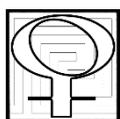

MERCURY IN 8TH HOUSE This position of Mercury suggests that you understand and are intrigued by the world of business, resource & commodities management and financial trading. You have a knack for seeing how markets are likely to move and you are able to translate this information for those who are less clever about investment matters. You are happy to share your knowledge as you recognise the empowering influence of an astutely-invested wealth portfolio. Mercury in the 8th house also suggests that you have a probing mind that can read the deeper meaning behind superficial statements. This X-ray vision gives you the ability to analyse situations, subjects and people that others have struggled to interpret. The ideal sharing situation for you is one where you can discuss deep issues or where you can talk about material that's considered taboo or prohibited.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING MERCURY reveal more about your communication skills, your early education and the community you grew up in.

- ✘ MERCURY TRINE JUPITER A naturally philosophical outlook and an inborn interest in learning helps to make your life endlessly enlightening. There's always something new for you to think about, absorb and understand.
- ✘ MERCURY SQUARE CHIRON You have the ability to listen sympathetically to stories of suffering & woe. But be careful that it does not turn into a tendency to worry about all the wounds of the world. You may have had contact with children or young people from your local community with problems that required some sort of healing.

- ✘ MERCURY SQUARE URANUS Your thought processes are innovative and original but sudden and unpredictable changes in their patterns might be difficult to follow or understand. They could make your communication style seem inconsistent, erratic or eccentric.
- ✘ MERCURY QUINTILE MIDHEAVEN SIGN (MC) Extraordinary communication skills can ease your progress to the fulfilment of your worldly goals. You may well be a master of the art of interpreting information at a professional level.
- ✘ MERCURY SQUARE THE NODES The ability to process, interpret and communicate information will support progress along your Life Path whereas a tendency to skim across the surface of subjects will not.

PLANET VENUS IN YOUR BIRTH CHART REPRESENTS YOUR RELATIONSHIPS, RESOURCES & VALUES

Venus reveals how you approach relationships with others, and how you respond within partnership situations. It also tells you a lot about your relationship with yourself. Venus helps you to recognise and value your own resources, which are the talents and abilities you were born with. The position of Venus in your birth chart will show what your attitude is towards Nature, art & beauty, abundance and material wealth. It will also indicate how easy it is for you to enjoy life. Your birth chart Venus will describe the type of females you feel drawn to or put off by.

YOUR VENUS IS IN LIBRA and has an especially strong influence in one of its own Zodiac Signs, which suggests that you value your connections with other people. This is because you assess yourself according to the feedback provided by your relationships. The responses you receive from your partners confirm the indistinct impressions you have of yourself. They help you to appreciate aspects of your character and personality that you don't recognise. Positive comments are always welcome but won't be believed unless they coincide with your image of who you are. Negative reactions hurt but you will take them on board, especially if they match your measurement of your own behaviour or situation. When you ask for a second opinion, you are not fishing for compliments, you are inviting offers of advice. You might not agree with the recommendations you receive, but they will help you to weigh up the pros and cons of your dilemma and come to a decision.

YOUR FAVOURITE FEMALE TRAITS are fairness and tact. You are put off by women who are lazy and self-indulgent.

LIBRA ELEMENT IS AIR & QUALITY IS CARDINAL your attitude to relationships is diplomatic and persuasive. You have a gift for getting partners to co-operate with your goals. You find charm more effective than strong-arm tactics and your partners often end up agreeing with you without knowing quite how it happened. You are drawn to people who are stylish and attractive. You are looking for someone who shares your love of discussion and doesn't mind your indecisiveness.

YOUR VALUES, YOUR NATURAL ASSETS & RESOURCES The harmonious combination of Venus and Libra means that your personal charm and persuasiveness are important assets that can help to enrich your quality of life. Your flair for public relations, your diplomatic attitude and your counselling skills are valuable resources that could be used to help you earn a comfortable living. You appreciate material wealth for its ability to buy the beautiful things you love. Your artistic instincts help you to create the stylish environments and harmonious atmospheres that others emulate and admire.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR RELATIONSHIP & RESOURCES PLANET VENUS will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most charming and sociable. Your natural assets – the talents and abilities you were born with - will be expressed through this area of your life, as will your gift for getting on with others.

VENUS IN 8TH HOUSE This position of Venus suggests that you have a talent for managing money and other material resources both for yourself and on behalf of others. You make an ideal business associate, particularly in collaborative ventures. You take a co-operative approach and you like to ensure that everyone is treated equally. You may not be so good at demanding a fair deal for yourself up front, but you can rely on charm and persuasion to get you what you want in the end. You might have to deal with power sharing issues within personal and professional partnerships and because you are not keen on confrontation, you may be self-conscious or embarrassed about fighting for control. As you don't like making yourself unpopular, you'll devise other, more subtle ways of asserting your influence. Venus in the 8th house indicates that trust is a valuable commodity in your eyes, and one that you'll reciprocate so long as your partners remain loyal to you. According to you, betrayal is the worst sin and one that you are not likely to forgive or forget.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING VENUS reveal more about the influence of your relationships, values and natural resources - the talents & abilities you were born with.

- ✘ VENUS SEXTILE MARS Your public relation skills combined with your personal charm work to win popularity and achieve goals.
- ✘ VENUS OPPOSING ERIS There could be a feisty, self-assertive edge to your personal charms that attracts others. But a tendency to cross swords with your partners could kill off hopes of peace and harmony within your relationships.
- ✘ VENUS SQUARE RISING & SETTING SIGNS It could be difficult for you to choose between your own goals and those of your partners. You may feel that you have to give up doing what you want in order to appease the people you are in relationships with. The ideal compromise is to find a fair balance between the two alternatives.
- ✘ VENUS QUINCUNX BASE SIGN (IC) There could be aspects of your style of expressing your talents and your mode of relating to other people that are at odds with your inner urges.

PLANET MARS IN YOUR BIRTH CHART REPRESENTS YOUR ENERGY, AIMS & WILLPOWER

Mars in your birth chart reveals how confident you are about setting and achieving goals and how easy you find it to motivate yourself and to act independently. It will also point to what excites and energises you as well as what irritates you and makes you feel angry or frustrated. Your birth chart Mars will describe the type of males you feel drawn to or repelled by.

YOUR MARS IS IN SAGITTARIUS, RULED BY PLANET JUPITER which suggests that your main motivation is adventure. Exploration and discovery are your two most thrilling themes. Give you a quest and you'll want to start on it straight away. The promise of a journey fills you with anticipation and preparations for a trip energise and excite you. But this is the best stage of the experience for you. You tend to lose interest once you have reached your destination and you have achieved what you set out to do. Your stamina flags and you run out of steam. No sooner have you arrived, and you are already wondering where to go next. You like the targets you aim for to keep moving so they always stay out of reach, beyond the next horizon. You can be rather careless with your own welfare. You have such strong faith in the belief that everything will work out fine you forget to put basic safety measures in place. This position of Mars suggests that you could be particularly strong in the lower body and upper legs and may benefit from exercise that works the joints and muscles of the hip & thigh area.

YOUR LIST OF MOST DESIRABLE MALE ATTRIBUTES would include optimism and openness. You are repelled by reckless and sloppy behaviour in men.

SAGITTARIUS ELEMENT IS FIRE & QUALITY IS MUTABLE your approach is keen and eager but can be slapdash. A new goal is a new adventure, and you set out towards it filled with enthusiasm. But when you reach a stage where the scenery gets samey and the pace stagnates, your stamina starts to drop. You'll probably try to rush past this point, or circumnavigate it in a series of short cuts, thus missing out on potentially important details. There's not much sense in you trying to do work that calls for meticulous movements or repetitive actions. Large scale projects and free-wheeling activities are much better suited to your energy. You just have to be aware of a tendency to expect too much of yourself.

MARS ENERGY IN ACTION The high-octane blend of adventurous Jupiter & Sagittarius with go-getting Mars can be extremely courageous if rather reckless. You are an intrepid explorer who is very keen to travel off the beaten track, seeking new thrills and experiences and finding out just how far you can go.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR ACTION PLANET MARS will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most competitive and courageous. Your method of motivating yourself will be expressed through this area of your life, as will your way of setting and achieving goals.

MARS IN 11TH HOUSE This position of Mars suggests that you may have an enthusiastic approach to groups, clubs or tribes of kindred spirits. You could be a key player in team sports, where your motivated, energetic attitude would be valued by your fellow members. You'd be competitive - both for yourself and for the group you identify with. You have the potential to become a political activist, although your passions would have to be engaged before you'd be prepared to fight for your party's cause. You can be quite ardent about defending your ideals and you are ready to battle any arguments against them. You might be drawn to friendships with assertive individuals, or you could be the one your friends look to for strength and motivation.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING MARS reveal more about the influence of your physical energy, your motivation, your willpower and your ability to get things done.

- ✘ MARS CONJUNCT URANUS Your goals and aims in life are uniquely your own. Your actions, responses and reflexes are lightning fast. Your energy levels can be erratic and unpredictable, which could be dangerous in certain situations.
- ✘ MARS TRINE ERIS Your independent and self-assertive attitude enhances your competitive energies to help you to win your goals.

DWARF PLANET CERES IN YOUR BIRTH CHART REPRESENTS YOUR CAPACITY FOR PRODUCING, PROTECTING & NURTURING

Ceres in your birth chart explains how you care for and feed yourself and can describe any issues you may have with taking food and nourishment. Ceres will also reveal in what ways you are most fertile and productive. It will offer information on the most natural and organic ways for you to express your creative skills.

YOUR CERES IS IN TAURUS RULED BY PLANET VENUS which suggests that you feel cared for when loved ones give you a sense of stability and security, by nurturing your basic needs, offering practical support and helping you to stay calm and relaxed. You enjoy being touched and stroked, and you appreciate simple but genuine gestures of affection. You are at your most fertile and productive when you are using the abilities and resources you were born with. These could be in the form of tangible talents that can help you to earn material wealth and make your life more comfortable and fulfilling.

CERES AND THE FOOD FACTOR The enjoyment of food could be one of the most sensual and satisfying pleasures in your life. You may have talented taste buds, or a refined sense of smell that would enhance your delight in simple, honest but good quality produce. You may also have an affinity with the soil and a green-fingered ability to grow your own vegetables.

TAURUS ELEMENT IS EARTH & QUALITY IS FIXED you are at your most fertile and productive when you are moving at your own calm and unhurried pace. You have a respect for natural rhythms and prefer to honour organic processes. You don't like rushing to complete things and would rather wait till they are really ripe for harvest.

CERES IN TAURUS - NATURALLY ABUNDANT Thanks to a fertile combination of creative Ceres with talented Taurus & resourceful Venus, you should find it comes naturally to you to produce ways of enriching your own life and making it more comfortable, enjoyable and fulfilling.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR PRODUCTIVE PLANET CERES will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most fertile and fruitful. Your ability to conceive a project and nurture it through to completion will be expressed through this area of your life.

CERES IN 4TH HOUSE This position of Ceres suggests that you have been born into a fertile and productive family. It's possible that your ancestral line contains a history of farming, cultivation or creativity. Your domestic environment may promote the ideal of making things from scratch or growing things from seed. There could be a history of issues around diet and nutrition that have been handed down through the generations.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING CERES reveal more about the influence of your fertility and productivity levels as well as your ability to give and receive nurturing.

- ✘ CERES CONJUNCT BASE SIGN (IC) Nurturing, protecting and producing for a family fulfils you on a personal level. Your home base should support your interest in the kind of creative projects that start from scratch and follow through to fruition.
- ✘ CERES CONJUNCT NORTH NODE You are developing the potential to create from scratch and to nurture and protect projects from seed stage to fruition. Your life will provide a platform for you to increase your levels of fertility and productivity.

PLANET JUPITER IN YOUR BIRTH CHART
REPRESENTS YOUR ABILITY TO EXPLORE THE UNKNOWN AND TO MAKE THE MOST OF OPPORTUNITY & GOOD FORTUNE

Jupiter's position in your birth chart reveals how adventurous you are and how eager to embrace new experiences. It also describes your attitude to countries, cultures and belief systems that are foreign to your own and it shows where you are at your most intelligent, generous, and optimistic.

YOUR JUPITER IS IN CAPRICORN, RULED BY PLANET SATURN which suggests that your optimistic attitude will help you to achieve your ambitions. Opportunities open to you, drawn by your positive expectations. You impress authority figures with your self-belief and upbeat attitude. It's possible that you will get promoted over the heads of people with more qualifications but less enthusiasm than you have. You will learn more from your own experiences than from any university degree. But you tend to doubt your own intelligence and you stand in awe of those you consider to be more knowledgeable or proficient than yourself. You may also give too much weight to the success of people you judge to be further up the social scale than you are. In actual fact, you would find the trappings of their wealth and status restricting. They would prevent you from reaching your true goal which is to voyage the world, exploring and discovering as much as you can in the time available to you. You probably prefer to travel alone, so that you can focus on the goals and agendas for your trip without the responsibility of having to worry about subordinates and crew members. The journey could get lonely in places, but there's always the chance of finding fresh opportunities and making new contacts.

CAPRICORN ELEMENT IS EARTH & QUALITY IS CARDINAL you are at your most positive and optimistic when you are on your way to fulfilling an ambition. You find the planning stages of your projects and the journey towards your purpose exciting. Once you have achieved an objective your target moves on to the next horizon. Life offers so many thrilling potentials and your goal is to explore as many of them as you can. You are not reaching for power and glory, you are looking for knowledge, experience and adventure.

JUPITER IN CAPRICORN - WISE GUIDE This blending of Saturn & Capricorn's expertise and maturity with Jupiter's intelligence and awareness gives you the potential to guide others along the path to greater knowledge. You command respect and obedience for your easy-going authority. You do not need to lay down the law or force people to follow in your footsteps.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR JUPITER, PLANET OF PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT, will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most optimistic and open to opportunity. It will also show which area of your life offers the greatest potential for personal growth.

JUPITER IN 12TH HOUSE This position of Jupiter suggests that you have a deep belief in energies that are cannot be described in purely physical terms. These energies guide and protect you and they sustain you when life on Planet Earth becomes too dark, dreary or depressing. They provide you with the faith, hope and trust that enable you to stay positive and optimistic. The sources of these energies may or may not be obvious to you and could form the focus of a lifelong quest to discover more about them. Wherever, whoever or whatever these energies are, they are very important to you and perhaps truer to you than what you perceive to be going on in the so-called real world.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING JUPITER reveal more about your willingness to grow, your levels of optimism and how you attract opportunities into your life.

- ✘ JUPITER CONJUNCT NEPTUNE This is an extremely inspired and visionary combination that can find ordinary life far too dreary and limiting. But it is important to stay grounded in the here and now if there is any hope of making your dreams come true. Your imagination is a tool that can be used to expand your existing levels of knowledge and consciousness. You have the potential for boundless intelligence, compassion and self-awareness but you will need to watch a tendency to be totally unrealistic.
- ✘ JUPITER CONJUNCT RISING SIGN (ASCENDANT) Your personality comes across as optimistic, jolly and up for anything. People are impressed by your positive, upbeat approach and bouncy, adventurous attitude. There may have been an atmosphere of hope around your birth or the sense of an event that was eagerly anticipated.

PLANET SATURN IN YOUR BIRTH CHART REPRESENTS YOUR ABILITY TO WORK WITH STRUCTURE & DISCIPLINE

Saturn defines your attitude towards authority and explains how you handle responsibility. It also reveals how you cope with setbacks and frustrations - most of which are created by your own doubts and fears - as well as any pessimistic attitudes you may have about your ability to achieve your goals in life. Saturn will show where you are at your most ambitious, mature, wise and patient.

YOUR SATURN IS IN SCORPIO, RULED BY PLANET PLUTO which suggests that you are a deeply disciplined person who can be really hard on yourself. You are not prepared to compromise on the tough standards you expect to reach and maintain. As your ambitions tend to be focussed on achievement in areas that others would judge as demanding, it's probably just as well that you insist on such rigid criteria in priming yourself for success. Your strong sense of dignity forbids you to take on a commitment unless you are prepared to see it through to its conclusion. You are unlikely to attempt anything you fear you may not be able to accomplish. You will probably invest a considerable amount of time in preparing yourself to cope with challenge before you feel ready to step into the profession or vocation you have selected.

SCORPIO ELEMENT IS WATER & QUALITY IS FIXED you are at your most structured and disciplined when you are trying to manage in tough circumstances. You fear the loss of control that challenge can bring. You worry that the situation will overpower you and you won't be able to cope. Perhaps you feel a bit like the Dutch boy with your finger in the dyke, or King Canute holding back the waves. But you stick to your task because your pride is at stake and you dread the shame of giving up or letting go.

SATURN IN SCORPIO - CONTROL IS ALL The somewhat obsessive influence of Pluto & Scorpio combined with Saturn's respect for control might make you list the ability to manage your life as your top priority. You fear the feeling of being out of your depth or not being able to cope. But once you have gained a handle on how to proceed, you will develop the tenacity to fulfil the most demanding, dramatic and challenging of goals.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR SATURN, PLANET OF DUTY & RESPONSIBILITY, will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most serious and mature and also your most ambitious and status conscious. It will also show which areas of your life tend to burden you with fear or doubt.

SATURN IN 9TH HOUSE This position of Saturn suggests that you have a tendency to mistrust the unknown. You prefer to deal with knowledge that has been tried and tested, or that can be proved in practical terms. You have less faith in hypothetical concepts or philosophical insights. For you, self-development is a serious business and whether you are undertaking an advanced degree or embarking on a weekend visit to a luxury spa, you'll approach the experience with the same level of commitment and expectation. You are definitely more interested in the destination than the journey, although you respect its role in helping you to achieve your ambitions.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING SATURN reveal more about the nature and origins of your doubts & fears, the type of life lessons you are likely to experience and how you will cope with them.

- ✘ SATURN TRINE SETTING SIGN (DESCENDANT) Your ability to make long-term commitments in spite of delays and obstacles helps you to form lasting relationships with others.
- ✘ SATURN CONJUNCT MIDHEAVEN SIGN (MC) Your professional and lifestyle goals are influenced by the urge to achieve and the need to maintain status in society. You tend to believe that most forms of success involve long-term effort and commitment, therefore your ambitions will take time to fulfil. While it is important to impress authority figures and keep them on side, the ability to obey orders should not be allowed to overshadow the more expressive aspects of building a career path.

YOUR OUTER (GENERATIONAL) PLANETS IN ZODIAC SIGN & HOROSCOPE HOUSE

Because the outer Planets take so long to orbit the Sun, they are seen to influence your life via the Horoscope Houses, Planetary Patterns & Rulerships of your Birth Chart. Their placements in zodiac signs are interpreted for your generation rather than on a personal level.

CHIRON "The wound is the place where the Light enters you" Rumi. Chiron in your birth chart represents your capacity for healing yourself and for helping to heal others. The ability to heal extends to all life forms: mineral, plant, animal and human and includes the Planet itself.

YOU WERE BORN WHILE CHIRON WAS PASSING THROUGH GEMINI, the sign of communication, education, and community. This suggests that your generation could be involved in healing the kind of pain and suffering caused by ignorance or lack of understanding. They may be instrumental in spreading educational information about healing, as well as creating links between communities who can provide healing and those who need it. Your peer group may also show an interest in the healing power of words. As Gemini energy can be simplistic, this generation will have to guard against taking a superficial approach to solving deeply serious problems.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR CHIRON shows in which sphere of life you are likely to express empathy for pain and suffering. It will also point to ways in which you have been wounded - whether physically, mentally or emotionally - by life.

CHIRON IN 5TH HOUSE This position of Chiron suggests that its influence will affect your true character, your relationship with yourself, your ability to express yourself and your attitudes to romance and parenthood. If you have been through any kind of wounded-ness, it could be because of issues involving sensitivity and self-confidence. Perhaps you are especially empathetic about how vulnerable children can be. This awareness might help you develop therapeutic talents that could be used to heal childhood hurts. You could have a tendency to fall in love with people's problems. And as a parent, you might dwell on the difficulties rather than the joys of your offspring.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING CHIRON reveal more about your ability to give and receive healing.

URANUS "Everyone thinks of changing the world, but no one thinks of changing himself" Leo Tolstoy. Planet Uranus shows what it is about you that is unique and original and what makes you different from everyone else. It also describes your ability to cope with change. It shows how you respond and adapt to sudden shifts in your circumstances or surroundings. The position of Uranus in your birth chart will point to how and where you are at your most free-spirited and non-judgemental.

YOU WERE BORN WHILE URANUS WAS PASSING THROUGH SAGITTARIUS, the sign of knowledge and experience. This suggests that your generation could be involved in exploring how philosophies and belief systems can facilitate radical changes in outlook and evolve Humankind's understanding of its existence and its role in the Cosmos. But a little of the expansive energy of Sagittarius goes a long way and this social group may need to watch a tendency to take things too far, too soon. They should beware of introducing ideas that are so way ahead of their time that they could cause more harm than good.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR URANUS shows in which area of your life you will be at your most unorthodox, innovative and original. It will also point to ways in which you may be made to feel different, and possibly even abnormal or excluded.

URANUS IN 11TH HOUSE This position of Uranus suggests that its influence will affect your connections with kindred spirits and your attitude towards the future. You tend to take the wild child, or wild card role within your friendships and also in team or group settings. You don't want to be restricted by labels or conventions, and you prefer not to be put in any category other than your own. You enjoy the friendly fellowship of situations where there are no hierarchies, where everyone is equal and where the platonic relationships between comrades don't get too intense or involved. You are tailor-made for cyber contact, as this enables you to form virtual connections without having to risk the claustrophobia that can come from being stuck in a room full of bodies. You can dip in and out, switch on and off, appear and disappear on your own terms. You can give the impression that you are a visitor from some far-distant future - a time-traveller with technological knowledge that can help to advance evolution.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING URANUS reveal more about your need for freedom and what is original and unconventional about you.

NEPTUNE "Not all dreamers are winners, but all winners are dreamers. Your dream is the key to your future" Mark Gorman. Planet Neptune shows your ability to use your imagination. It describes what inspires you and explains how your dreams and visions influence the choices you make. The position of Neptune in your birth chart will show where you are most vulnerable and confused, and most easily deceived.

YOU WERE BORN WHILE NEPTUNE WAS PASSING THROUGH SAGITTARIUS, the sign of knowledge and experience. This suggests that your generation could be involved in exploring the role of religious and spiritual beliefs. How they can be used to enlighten and inspire but also to confuse and deceive. They may also be instrumental in questioning the role of the media & entertainment industries in manipulating mass populations by the use of smoke & mirrors. The philosophical energy of Sagittarius could help this social group take an intelligent and understanding approach to the roles that faith and dogma play in people's lives.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR NEPTUNE shows in which realm of life you are at your most sensitive, imaginative and visionary. It can also indicate where you are likely to be deceived, or how your energies are most vulnerable to being vampired.

NEPTUNE IN 12TH HOUSE This position of Neptune suggests that its influence will affect the subtle energies of your multi-dimensional inner world. You receive information via your imagination, in the form of symbols or mental pictures. These transmissions will have an ethereal quality and some will be beautiful whereas others may be distressing. Either way, you can feel confused and overwhelmed by them as their imagery is not easy to interpret or translate into everyday terms. It's also possible that these visions could seem more valid to you than your ordinary existence. If this is the case you may feel disappointed by the differences between your dreams and the so-called real world. It might help you to find a form of meditation that allows you to create a more defined access to your dreams, visions and premonitions so you can bring them under the control of your conscious mind.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING NEPTUNE reveal more about its visionary and inspirational role in your horoscope.

- ✘ NEPTUNE QUINCUNX NORTH NODE A tendency to fall back on imaginative or visionary ability inherited from your ancestral line could hamper your progress along your life path, which would be a source of stress for you.

PLUTO "The day the power of love overrules the love of power, the world will know peace." Mahatma Gandhi. Planet Pluto shows the extent of your personal power and how you channel it. It also explains how you work with the power to transform. The position of Pluto in your birth chart will show how and where you seek the challenge that will help you to overcome the weaker and less developed aspects of your character.

YOU WERE BORN WHEN PLUTO WAS PARTICULARLY POTENT WHILE IT WAS PASSING THROUGH ITS OWN SIGN OF SCORPIO. This indicates that you and your generation will live through a time of transformation, during which most of what is currently in place - particularly where the use and abuse of power is involved - will undergo total regeneration. The process is challenging and intense, but absolutely essential. The uncompromising energy of Scorpio ensures that, as the snake sheds its skin and the Phoenix rises from the ashes, this inevitable process of death and rebirth will take place.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR PLUTO reveals in which area of life you will be at your most powerful and intense. It may also show where you prefer to be private, or to keep things undercover.

PLUTO IN 9TH HOUSE This position of Pluto suggests that its influence will affect your ability to increase your levels of experience, knowledge and awareness. You are deeply committed to self-development. You are intrigued by the concept of self-discovery and may study psychology as a way of uncovering clues about who you are and why you are here. You appreciate the potential of belief systems to manipulate and rule huge numbers of people. For this reason, politics, religion and philosophy are other subjects you may choose to explore, or to study at advanced level. You have the potential to become a charismatic and influential guide to people wishing to free themselves from situations where they feel controlled or disempowered.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING PLUTO reveal more about its role in helping you to express your personal power.

- ✘ PLUTO QUINTILE RISING SIGN (ASCENDANT) Your personal power gives you a remarkable ability to influence others and adds an extraordinarily charismatic quality to the impression you make on those around you.
- ✘ PLUTO QUINCUNX NORTH NODE Complex, deep-seated issues inherited through your ancestral line could be preventing you from progressing along your Life Path.

ERIS "To know oneself, one should assert oneself." Albert Camus. Dwarf Planet Eris shows how assertive you are and how capable you are of standing up for yourself. The position of Eris in your birth chart will show how and where you'll need to fight against the destructive forces of aggression, rivalry and revenge within your character.

SEVERAL GENERATIONS HAVE AND WILL BE BORN WITH ERIS IN ARIES. This suggests that the People of Planet Earth are moving between a primitive, war-like state of consciousness to a more enlightened level of awareness. As the true horror and cost of war is dawning on us, we begin to realise that we can continue to be self-assertive without causing so much death and destruction. You have joined an evolutionary process that is beginning to view competition as a tool for self-improvement rather than as a means of basic survival.

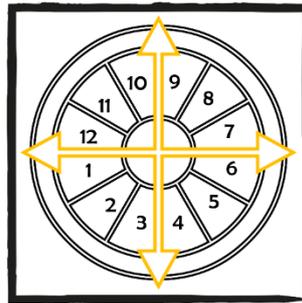

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR ERIS highlights the area of life you will be at your most feisty and assertive. It could also indicate where and how you tend to become angry, and get drawn into conflicts.

ERIS IN 2ND HOUSE This position of Eris suggests that its influence will affect your resourcefulness and your ability to generate wealth, comfort & abundance. Your feisty nature is a valuable asset that can be used to enrich your life. You are prepared to defend your material possessions and to fight for the things you value. You appreciate assertiveness but you can be a bit too forceful and direct. You tend to get aggressively stubborn if you feel pushed to act before you are ready.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING ERIS reveal more about its role in helping you to assert yourself effectively, without having to resort to aggression.

- ✦ ERIS SQUARE RISING & SETTING SIGNS the feisty, argumentative aspects of your personality could work against you, by causing conflict in your relationships with others.

THE FOUR ANGLES OF YOUR BIRTH CHART

RISING & SETTING SIGNS YOUR PERSONALITY & RELATIONSHIPS

Also known as your Ascendant and Descendant, these signs are the sections of the zodiac which were rising in the east and setting in the west at the time of your birth, in the place of your birth. They play an important role in the way you project your personality and the manner in which you approach your relationships with others.

CAPRICORN RISING SIGN (ASCENDANT) RULED BY PLANET SATURN your personality comes across as reliable, mature, ambitious and hard-working. Your birth experience has left you with the sense that Life is a serious business and that success has to be striven for and attained through hard graft, patience and commitment. The impact of your initial impression of Planet Earth may have imprinted you with the idea that acclimatising to unfamiliar environments can be a testing process.

CANCER SETTING SIGN (DESCENDANT) RULED BY THE MOON you are seeking relationships where you can relax and feel at home. Finding a soul mate who sends out a family vibe and who proves to share your creative interests would be a real bonus. Your partners experience you as comforting to be with, caring and sympathetic although you can also come across to them as emotionally needy, moody and defensive.

MIDHEAVEN & BASE SIGNS YOUR PROFESSIONAL & PERSONAL GOALS

Also known as your MC and IC, these signs are the sections of the zodiac which were directly overhead the place of your birth and directly overhead on the opposite side of the world at the time of your birth. They play an important role in your choice of professional and personal goals.

SCORPIO MIDHEAVEN SIGN (MC) RULED BY PLANET PLUTO you will be drawn to careers and vocations that challenge you and take you out of your comfort zone. You may choose a profession in an industry or organisation that deals with power. If so, it's probable that you will be coping with pressure and people with hidden motives. You have the potential to make a real difference in fields that others perceive to be taboo or too difficult to deal with. All the truly important areas of life that many of us prefer to ignore or avoid because they involve dredging up deep emotions or confronting complex issues, could hold a fascination for you.

TAURUS BASE SIGN (IC) RULED BY PLANET VENUS you need a place to relax and unwind. Ideally your home base would be built from natural materials, secure and serene. Access to outside space that allows you to connect to the elements would be a bonus. Well-made articles and artworks that are beautiful in their simplicity would enhance your ideal interior décor which should reflect your preference for good quality, uncluttered design.

PATTERNS AND FORMATIONS OF YOUR BIRTH CHART ANGLES

THERE IS A HARMONIOUS FORMATION BETWEEN YOUR RISING & SETTING SIGNS AND YOUR MIDHEAVEN AND BASE SIGNS WHICH SUGGESTS:

- ✦ that the image and personality you project suit the profession and lifestyle you aspire to, making it easier for you to achieve your desired goals
- ✦ that your profession and lifestyle encourage you to project an image which reflects your true personality
- ✦ that your home life and personal relationships support your professional progress
- ✦ that the nature of your professional ambitions and aspirational goals support your private life and increase your enjoyment of it

THE FOUR ANGLES of your Birth Chart are in Earth and Water Signs. This suggests that you will be able to combine practicality and common sense with instinct, intuition and imagination in the fulfilment of your personal and professional goals. Any problems you have will be because it might not be so easy for you to motivate yourself or push yourself forward, or to demand attention from others. It may also be difficult for you to take a more detached, clinical perspective towards your situation or the circumstances you have to deal with.

NODES OF THE MOON YOUR JOURNEY ACROSS THE ZODIAC

THE JOURNEY FROM SCORPIO TO TAURUS

coming from SOUTH NODE IN SCORPIO, RULED BY PLANET PLUTO you are an accomplished manager with an instinct to control where and what you can. You tend to distrust anything that seems too easy and you often make things more complicated than they need to be. You find it difficult to accept things at face value and you are suspicious of hidden meanings behind the simplest of statements. This has given you a knack for sussing out secrets and helped you to develop as someone who can cope with challenging circumstances. But the time has come for you to give yourself a break. You are learning how to take a more easy-going, trusting attitude to life so that you can relax and enjoy its natural pleasures.

POSSIBLE PAST LIFE & ANCESTRAL LINE ISSUES you may carry strong soul memories of lifetimes which were concerned with the use and abuse of personal power. It's also possible you are influenced by ancestral line experiences involving issues connected to betrayal, bullying, blaming or scapegoating.

moving towards NORTH NODE IN TAURUS, RULED BY PLANET VENUS you are learning to appreciate your natural resourcefulness and the talents and abilities you were born with. You are beginning to understand how you can take care of your material needs and earn the means to provide for your comfort and security. But this is an art you have yet to acquire, and you may slip back into relying on investment or input from others to cover your costs. You are also developing an ability to enjoy the world via your physical senses and to appreciate beauty in all forms. You will gradually come to value the simple pleasures of life and you'll realise that things don't have to be complicated or powerful in order to be important.

NODES OF THE MOON YOUR JOURNEY ACROSS THE HOROSCOPE

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSES CONTAINING your North & South Nodes, will reveal in which area of life you already have plenty of experience and the direction towards which you now need to channel your energies. There will probably be a tendency to fall back on what has gone before, because the ground feels so familiar. But it is important to your personal growth that you push forward into territory that is not so well known to you, so that you can continue to progress, develop and evolve.

THE JOURNEY FROM 10TH HOUSE TO 4TH HOUSE

from the SOUTH NODE IN 10TH HOUSE of Professional Ambitions, Career Potential & Worldly Goals. This position of the South Node suggests that you already know how to attain success as a professional. But while you find it easy to operate out in the world, achieving goals and meeting targets, you may not feel so competent when it comes to creating comfort and intimacy in a family setting. The time has come for you to turn your attention to your personal life. You will gradually learn to relinquish your preoccupation with social status and replace it with a yearning for the delights of domesticity and an interest in your ancestral line.

POSSIBLE PAST LIFE & ANCESTRAL LINE ISSUES you may be working with echoes of previous incarnations that involve high-powered corporate positions. There might be soul memories of having to deal with the pomp and circumstance, duty and responsibility of officialdom. It could be that ambitious, status-seeking energies are dominant within your ancestral line.

to the NORTH NODE IN 4TH HOUSE of Home, Family & Personal Life Your ambitions are beginning to turn from professional achievement in public life to more homely goals. You are starting to realise that you can obtain more satisfaction from expressing your creativity within your personal domain than you do from striving to prove yourself in the corporate world. Your life path is leading you towards a form of inner fulfilment that neither seeks nor needs worldly recognition.

ENERGY PATTERNS & CONTACTS INVOLVING THE MOON'S NODES reveal more about the nature of your Life Journey and its evolutionary path.
