GEMINI PERSONALITY TRAITS

- ✘ Geminis are natural-born communicators – lively, intelligent and interested in just about everything.
- ✘ Variety really is the spice of life for Geminis and they don't like being pinned down physically, mentally or emotionally. They have to keep moving.
- ✘ Geminis come across as Mercurial – quick, clever and eternally young. Their ability to communicate makes whatever they say sound interesting. Other people are keen to listen to their ideas.
- ✘ Geminis' strength lies in their communication skills. However, they tend to skim across the surface of things. They may get the gist of what's going on, but they don't always understand the true heart of the matter.

GEMINI AND HEALTH

Gemini health problems tend to come from the chest area. It's important that this sign takes time to breathe deeply in order to release any tension in the diaphragm. Information overload and a tendency to talk about feelings rather than experience them can create mental problems like insomnia or stress-based depression.

GEMINI AND MONEY

As having money tends to make life more interesting & varied Gemini ideas often create financial success. This sign isn't particularly interested in wealth for its own sake, but Geminis' natural ability to communicate, network, market and sell helps them sustain a favourable financial flow.

GEMINI CAREER PROSPECTS

Geminis are attracted to careers that allow them to exercise their mental abilities and communication skills. They are also looking for variety and mobility as they are not so keen on being pinned down to a single location. They may not want to move too far from their own community or neighbourhood, and they'll be happy staying close to their local area so long as they can enjoy frequent changes of scene. Geminis do well as journalists, interpreters, teachers & instructors, and they also excel in sales & marketing.

GEMINI IS RULED BY PLANET MERCURY

- ✘ The Gemini character is influenced by the planet of communication, making this sign clever and well informed. There's an interest in a variety of subjects and a knack for making links between diverse pieces of data.

ALL ABOUT GEMINI

- ✦ Geminis are natural networkers and they know how to get their message across. People find them easy to understand and interesting to chat with.
- ✦ But Gemini's attention wanders if the conversation gets too repetitive or the subject matter turns negative or becomes overly deep and complicated

GEMINI ELEMENT & QUALITY

The combination of Mutable Quality & Air Element makes the 3rd zodiac sign quick to learn and interested in a variety of subjects. Geminis need mental stimulation as they become bored without something to hold their attention. And a bored Gemini can be very mischievous! This is when they might start making things up or telling tall stories simply to stir things up a bit. They may not expect their words to take hold, or to leave a lasting impression and they can be quite surprised when they are called to account for what they have said.

GEMINI IS THE 3RD ZODIAC SIGN

The Third Zodiac Sign is interested in information. Curious, communicative and keen to keep up with the latest news, this sign is made for processing and passing on facts & figures. Excellent at making connections between one point and another, 3RD sign people are natural networkers within their communities. Education, sales, journalism, travel and couriering provide some of the suitable slots for these quick & clever individuals.

GEMINI IS LINKED TO THE 3RD HOROSCOPE HOUSE

The Gemini House is seen as the early learning centre of the horoscope. It describes the ability to study, process, interpret and communicate information. It's about childhood experiences with siblings, cousins, playmates, school pals and teachers. It's also about making connections within peer groups, communities and neighbourhoods.

THE THREE DECANS OF GEMINI

Each zodiac sign is 30 degrees long and is divided into three Decans of 10 degrees each.

THE 1ST DECAN of the third zodiac sign
is double GEMINI, influenced by Planet
MERCURY

This is the fastest and most flexible section of the sign. Gemini energy in the 1st Decan flickers between situations and subjects and is particularly resistant to being pinned down. This genre of Gemini craves the variety it needs to satisfy its curiosity and fascination for facts. 1ST Decan Geminis like to keep moving, but the territory they are travelling around does not have to be huge, so long as their local community or neighbourhood supplies them with enough information to keep them amused.

The Mercury influence on this Decan supplies the quicksilver quality of this type of Gemini. With clever brains that ingest information on the fly plus a gift for multi-tasking this lot find it difficult to sit still for a second. They are best to operate in short bursts alternated with power naps to help them avoid insomnia or other sleep problems.

THE 2ND DECAN of
GEMINI is influenced by LIBRA and Planet VENUS

Geminis of this Decan are the silver-tongued salesmen of the sign. They are persuasive and convincing, with a talent for telling people what they want to hear. Genuinely interested in others, this type of Gemini can listen as well as they can talk. They make good go-betweens and messengers as they are particularly skilled at conveying information from one source to another.

Venus's influence on this kind of Gemini indicates a flair for diplomacy and negotiation. 2nd Decan Geminis have a communication style that is credible yet tactful, giving the impression that all viewpoints have been carefully considered. Seemingly sincere, it's difficult to resist their way with words although it is wiser to check that the promises they've made are definitely deliverable!

THE 3RD DECAN of GEMINI is influenced by AQUARIUS and Planet URANUS

This is Gemini energy at its most brainy. Already into information, this sector of the sign notches up the levels of intelligence and understanding. This type of Gemini could struggle to stay on the same page as less astute thinkers. They are more likely to streak ahead and reach conclusions far faster than their fellows. Mental boredom could be a challenge for them as most people's chat is simply not up to their standards.

The innovative influence of Uranus on this Decan brings an ability to think original thoughts and comprehend ground-breaking concepts. Taking an old-hat idea, turning it on its head and presenting it from a fresh angle comes naturally to 3rd Decan Gemini who are very happy communicating virtually, via a variety of techno gadgets.

GEMINI IN RELATIONSHIPS

- ✘ ROMANTIC: one-to-one commitment is not something that Geminis find easy because it feels static. If their relationships are to last, they need the time and space to go where they want when they want.
- ✘ FRIENDSHIP: Geminis make fun companions – they love to chat and gossip.
- ✘ FAMILY: Geminis are natural brothers and sisters – this is the sign of the twins after all!
- ✘ PROFESSIONAL: Geminis contribute ideas and communication skills but they can be difficult to pin down.
- ✘ KEY RELATIONSHIP: Gemini's key relationship would have to be with someone or something of ongoing interest to them. There may also be a special sibling or someone who takes the role of "twin" in their life.

COMPATIBILITY BETWEEN THE ELEMENTS

FIRE
EARTH
AIR WATER

Astrology suggests that it is easier for the signs of one element to get along with one another, as the energy that drives them comes from the same source. But that doesn't mean that relationships between signs from different elements are doomed to fail, although it might take longer for them to understand and accommodate the differences between them.

GEMINI IS AN AIR SIGN

GEMINI COMPATIBILITY WITH FIRE SIGNS

The elements of Air & Fire complement each other very well. Timing is important, however as things can happen too fast & misunderstandings can occur.

- ✘ ARIES This pair move at the speed of lightning. Gemini is quite capable of matching Aries zooming pace.
- ✘ LEO This is a very complimentary combination. Gemini helps obstinate Leo to adapt and Leo stabilises nervy Gemini.
- ✘ SAGITTARIUS A great journalistic team although these two tend to polarise when it comes to communication. Gemini is good on juicy gossip while Sagittarius seeks a deeper discussion.

GEMINI COMPATIBILITY WITH EARTH SIGNS

Pair-ups between Air & Earth Signs can be a bit dry unless there are shared interests, ideals and activities to provide the passion.

- ✘ TAURUS This is a Mr & Mrs Jack Spratt (of the nursery rhyme) combo. Gemini can't be slowed down and Taurus can't be rushed.
- ✘ VIRGO These two share a love of information but their priorities don't match. Gemini just wants a quick summary while Virgo needs to ensure all the boxes are ticked.
- ✘ CAPRICORN This is a great business combo. Gemini inputs the ideas, and Capricorn provides the planning

GEMINI COMPATIBILITY WITH FELLOW AIR SIGNS

Air Signs share an interest in information and communication, but if everyone is speaking their own words or thinking their own thoughts, then who's listening?

- ✘ GEMINI it's like looking in a mirror: sometimes you like what you see, sometimes you don't
- ✘ LIBRA this is a great PR partnership. Gemini has the gift of the gab and Libra is charm personified but their socialising leaves little time for their relationship.
- ✘ AQUARIUS this is a great combination for sharing of ideas but could be too cool for sharing of emotions.

GEMINI COMPATIBILITY WITH WATER SIGNS

The elements of Air & Water can work well when there is a sharing of creative ideas. Air signs help the water signs to put their ideas into words, and water signs help air signs to express their imagination.

- ✘ CANCER This can work so long as they understand that Gemini talks about feelings and Cancer just feels them.

- ✦ SCORPIO This is a co-counselling combination. Gemini helps heavy Scorpio to lighten up and Scorpio enables flighty Gemini to explore hidden depths.
- ✦ PISCES With the combination of Gemini's winged heels and Pisces' dolphin flippers it's unlikely that the feet of this pair will spend much time on the ground!

COMPATIBILITY BETWEEN THE QUALITIES

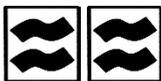

CARDINAL
FIXED MUTABLE

Traditional Astrology used to believe that it would be difficult for signs of the same Quality to get on with each other. Actually they are perfectly capable of bringing out the best in one another. But relationships between them can be challenging for both partners, as disagreements can arise when their energies clash or turn confrontational.

GEMINI IS A MUTABLE SIGN

GEMINI COMPATIBILITY WITH FELLOW MUTABLE
SIGNS VIRGO,
SAGITTARIUS &
PISCES

These four signs share an ability to adjust and adapt to changing circumstances which ensures that life remains mobile and interesting. Difficulties would be caused by a lack of focus, or an inability to be clear about what both partners expected from the relationship between them. It's possible that they could wander off in diverse directions without identifying when, where, how and why they were going to meet up again!

MUTABLE SIGN
GEMINI WITH CARDINAL SIGNS
ARIES, CANCER,
LIBRA & CAPRICORN

It's a question of priorities. Once they have identified a specific target, Cardinal signs make it their main objective and aim their energies towards achieving it. Mutable signs tend to lack focus as their main motivation is to find variety and diversity in life. But Mutable signs can help their Cardinal pals to keep a range of options open rather than pursuing just one route, and Cardinal signs can help their Mutable partners to concentrate on one goal at a time.

MUTABLE SIGN
GEMINI WITH FIXED
SIGNS TAURUS, LEO,
SCORPIO & AQUARIUS

It's a question of intensity. Fixed Signs have a habit of giving their all to whatever they have chosen as their mission in life. Mutable signs seek a wide range of interests and prefer not to get bogged down in any single issue. Fixed signs can help their Mutable friends to go deeper and get more involved. Mutable signs can help their Fixed partners to lighten up and take things less seriously.

GEMINI MYTHOLOGY

Gemini is a Yang sign ruled by the planet Mercury (Hermes in Greek mythology), messenger to the Gods and God of the marketplace. His influence gives Geminis their talent for communication and their ability to process information. He also makes this sign a natural at networking, news-gathering and wheeling & dealing! According to mythology, Mercury's most serious task was to accompany souls as they departed life on their journey into the Underworld. Geminis are sometimes accused of being superficial but in fact they are versatile, as we can see from the legend of the winged messenger. Like him Geminis have a serious side which they might express by communicating about very deep and serious subjects.

GEMINI & THE TAROT

Gemini has an affinity with the suit of SWORDS which represents energy that is abstract and intellectual. Swords are about ideas, information and communication. They can also symbolise the presence of conflict between different points of view.

ZODIAC SIGN GEMINI
