PLACE: Williamstown, Massachusetts, USA

Your Birth Chart could be thought of as your personal Energy Map. It describes your character and personality and reveals areas of strength and weakness. It defines the different types of energy you are working with and explains how they complement or clash with one another.

This report offers interpretations for the Planetary Placements in your birth chart. Some themes will repeat themselves, showing that the same issue is being explored from a variety of viewpoints and perspectives. Some energies will contradict one another – explaining why there will be times when you could feel that you are in conflict with yourself.

In my experience, it is important to recognise both the reoccurring themes and the contradictions within a horoscope. Birth Chart themes often give meaning and direction to the person's life as well as pointing to their true destiny (or destination).

Birth Chart contradictions teach us to accept that we are not meant to be perfect. We are born to explore, to discover, to learn, to compromise, to grow and to evolve. Best of all, we are here to learn to love ourselves and to express ourselves freely, absolutely and unconditionally.

Your Birth Chart confirms that you are who you were born to be. You are in the right place, at the right time, doing the right thing. You are a Cosmic Being having a human adventure, enjoying this amazing experience called Life on Planet Earth!

I can finally say I'm free and if the questions led me here, then I am who I was born to be"*

THE SUN

YOUR TRUE SELF, CHARACTER AND POTENTIAL

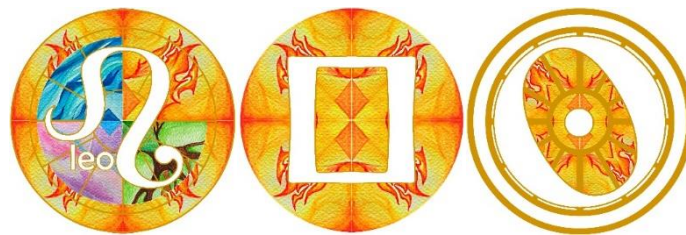

THE SUN in your birth chart reveals the real you, your true identity and your true nature.

The Sun is the hero or heroine of your Life's story. It explains how you express your potential and reveals whether you find it easy or difficult to shine as an individual. It shows the type of energy that drives your life experience and describes the ways in which that force is either free-flowing or frustrated.

Your birth chart Sun can give valuable information about how you are influenced by important male role models in your life.

SUN IN LEO

Element FIRE Quality FIXED Ruler THE SUN

YOUR SUN IS SHINING BRIGHT IN ITS OWN SIGN LEO! Your character is influenced by the central powerhouse of our solar system, making this an especially potent placement. As a Leo, you were born to shine and to share your light with the rest of us mere mortals! So, who can blame you for being just a bit of a show off if your purpose is to stand in the spotlight? Not all Leos are obviously outgoing, but their energy can light up a room as they walk into it. The Sun endows you with leadership potential, as people feel revitalised and reassured by your presence. You will have a tendency to become bossy and you can be arrogant, but these failings are outweighed by your generosity and joie de vivre.

YOUR IDEAL ROLE MODELS are confident, generous and self-assured. Males who are conceited, vain or arrogant are a particularly negative influence for you.

THE ELEMENT OF LEO IS FIRE You are naturally energetic. You have plenty of initiative, vitality and self-confidence. Self-promotion should come easily to you as it is not difficult for you to put yourself forward or to ask for attention. Self-motivation should not be a problem unless your confidence levels are low, or your self-belief has been undermined in some way.

THE QUALITY OF LEO IS FIXED You are strong, determined and focused and you like to feel in control of your life. Perseverance is no problem for you - on the contrary, it is knowing when to call it a day that you find difficult. Letting go is not easy as you always wonder if there is a stone somewhere that you have left unturned.

THE SUN'S INFLUENCE IS STRONG IN ITS OWN SIGN, LEO adding charisma to your character and reinforcing your ability to express your full potential. Your true energy shines through in all types of situations, whether easy or challenging.

THE PROS and CONS OF SUN IN LEO You are proud, generous and loyal. You have natural warmth and you are loving and affectionate to the people around you, provided that you feel appreciated by them. You are motivated by recognition, which gives you the willpower to achieve your aims in life. You are a strong character and you make an impression just by walking into a room. You are attracted to all things dramatic and you enjoy getting involved in projects you consider to be important or prestigious. You need to shine in whatever you do and to take your rightful place, centre stage. It is important that you are recognised as special and given the praise and admiration you deserve. You do not really mind how long it takes to achieve something so long as the results meet your exacting standards. You are your own sternest critic but you react strongly to criticism from others and any comments that sound as though you or your actions are being disapproved of are taken very much to heart. This can cause problems for you if you insist on being offended by anything other than outright praise and admiration.

YOUR BIRTH CHART EARTH IS IN AQUARIUS This placement suggests that you have come to Planet Earth to bring about changes that will drive the process of Evolution onwards and upwards. Your life will contribute to this process, especially if you are consciously aware that this is why you are here. You are particularly effective in the role of group leader, bringing out the best in others and motivating them to move towards the future with confidence and self-assurance.

 THE THREE DECANS Each zodiac sign	YOUR BIRTH DATE IS IN THE 3RD DECAN OF LEO WHICH IS LINKED TO ARIES & RULED BY PLANET MARS Third Decan Leos are perhaps the most competitive section of their sign. Self-motivated and strong on self-confidence, they will be keen to win the goals they have set themselves. They might be the least patient and persistent of the Leo Decans but they are no doubt the

is 30 days long and is divided into 3 Decans of 10 days each.	most independent, self-sufficient and able to act on their own initiative. The Martian influence on this kind of Leo makes them natural leaders with the potential to bring out the best in their followers. But they can be bossy as well as intolerant and dismissive of those who struggle to keep up with their demanding pace. This type of Leo can be rather self-involved and needs to avoid arrogant or big-headed behaviour.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR SUN

The house placement of your Sun indicates the area of your life that is likely to be the most important for you in terms of helping you to express yourself and to fulfil your potential. It will offer you a platform on which to perform and to shine as a unique individual with special qualities that only you possess.

 SUN IN 1ST HOROSCOPE HOUSE	This position of the Sun suggests that you like to make an entrance. Your goal is to draw attention to yourself as your level of confidence is affected by how much of an impact you make on your environment. Even if there are other factors in your birth chart which give you a shy or modest quality, you will still want to assert your personality. You are self-motivated, and you take a can-do attitude to life. Your action-oriented, go-getting approach gives you leadership potential. When your strong presence is used to energise and direct those who are drawn to you, they will reward you with loyalty and admiration.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING THE SUN reveal more about how easy or difficult it is for you to express your true character with confidence and conviction.

 POSITIVE POTENTIAL	SUN QUINTILE MOON You have a rare and special talent for feeling comfortable and at ease with yourself that shouldn't be under-rated. Remarkable abilities could be inherited through your ancestral line. SUN TRINE MIDHEAVEN SIGN The confidence & charisma of your character can help you to achieve worldly goals that are authentic to you, and that allow you to express and fulfil your true potential.

 POSSIBLE PITFALLS	SUN SQUARE NEPTUNE Your extreme sensitivity can make you vulnerable and susceptible to being overwhelmed by atmospheres. At times, life seems unreal, confusing and chaotic. As you do not have a strong sense of Self, it might difficult for you to focus on the fulfilment of your true potential.

THE MOON YOUR SECRET SELF, INSTINCTS, EMOTIONS, FEELINGS AND MEMORIES

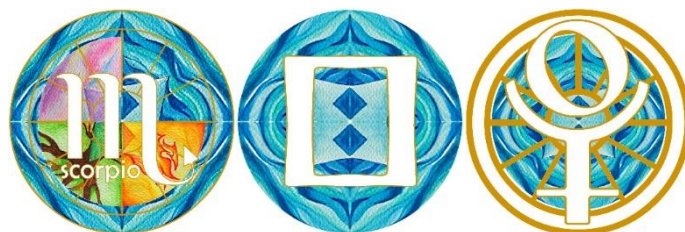

THE MOON in your birth chart reveals your unconscious instincts, emotions, feelings, moods and memories. It indicates what comes naturally to you, without any deliberate effort on your part. It defines what you need to feel comfortable and secure in life.

The Moon describes your origins, your family, your early upbringing and its effect on you. It can give valuable information about how you will be influenced by important female role models in your life.

Most people are unaware of their Moon sign characteristics and therefore they are not so easy to accept, understand or control.

MOON IN SCORPIO Element WATER Quality FIXED Ruler PLANET PLUTO

YOUR MOON IS IN SCORPIO, RULED BY PLANET PLUTO which makes you emotionally resilient. Your powerful instincts act as a defence mechanism, preparing you to cope with whatever comes along and your intuition is always on guard. It is difficult for you to reveal your more vulnerable feelings in case you open yourself up to exploitation. You do not trust easily, and you feel suspicious that others might overpower you with their passions or drain you with their needs. You are acutely aware of people's dark moods and hidden issues. You are a natural born therapist with the ability to hold things together while others fall apart. You are the one people want beside them when times are truly tough. But when life closes in on you, you tend to pull down the blackout blinds and shut yourself off. It is almost impossible to penetrate your barbed wire fence but those who persevere in trying to get through to you will earn your undying gratitude. It is such a relief for you to find someone who is strong enough to keep you company through thick and thin. This position of the Moon suggests that you hang on to feelings and memories from the past. You will never forget a favour, but it takes forever for you to forgive a fault.

YOUR IDEAL FEMALE ROLE MODELS are passionate, honest, supportive and sincere. Females who are invasive, overpowering and controlling are a particularly negative influence for you.

SCORPIO ELEMENT IS WATER and QUALITY IS FIXED Your emotions go very deep, but you do not find them easy to express. Your feelings are often based on the inkings and undercurrents in the atmosphere around you. Your instincts are very strong, and they are usually spot on when it comes to sussing out complicated issues. But you tend to keep your impressions to yourself, as you are aware that some of what you pick up on is stuff that people do not want to confront, cannot cope with or would prefer to keep hidden.

PLUTO IS RULER OF YOUR MOON IN SCORPIO Its placement in your birth chart will influence your moods, memories, feelings and instinctive responses. The position of Planet Pluto helps to explain how your subconscious energy works for you and against you - either by supporting or sabotaging your emotional wellbeing.

YOUR FAMILY BACKGROUND and ANCESTRAL LINE The combined force of potent Pluto and strong Scorpio on your Moon suggests that your acute instincts and powerful intuition may be inherited through your ancestral line. It could be that your family tree contains a string of survivors, who faced and overcame challenging conditions by staying one step ahead of the game. The atmosphere of your home background could have been quite intense, or there may have been passionate emotions that were difficult to confront or express. Perhaps your family were under pressure in some way, or were forced to cope with tough circumstances. These experiences will have strengthened you, but they might have made you suspicious of life. They could have given you the impression that, just when you feel everything is under control, something happens to sabotage your security.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR MOON

The house placement of your Moon will explain in which area of your life you are likely to be at your most creative and emotionally charged, and where you might be expressing characteristics, qualities and abilities that have been inherited through your ancestral line. The house of your Moon can also reveal how, where and when you feel most safe, comfortable and at home with yourself.

	This position of the Moon suggests that your family background and ancestral history are very strong factors affecting your emotional wellbeing. While this is true for most of us, it is especially so for you. You need to know as much as possible about your origins, and about the

MOON IN 4TH HOROSCOPE HOUSE	ongoing state of affairs within your home environment, otherwise you will feel troubled and insecure. A sure sign that you are upset about something - whether real or imagined - is when you retreat behind a defensive shield, becoming moody and withdrawn. Ideally, your home is somewhere you feel safe and comfortable, where you can come out of your shell and express your creative instincts on your own terms.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING THE MOON reveal more about your instincts, emotions, feelings and memories and determine how easy or difficult it is for you to feel comfortable and secure.

 POSSIBLE PITFALLS	MOON SQUARE CERES You have a compulsive urge to nurture new life. The impulse to create at all costs can be wasteful and the instinct to protect can cause a tendency to get too attached. MOON OPPOSING SATURN There's a strong sense of duty within relationships and a tendency to take responsibility for other people's needs while not hoping for much sympathy or consideration in return. On the contrary, it comes more naturally to you to expect criticism rather than praise. MOON SQUARE RISING & SETTING SIGNS A tendency to retreat into shyness or to go on the defensive might make it more difficult for you to deal with people. Your moods & emotions could prevent easy relations with prospective partners.
 FOR AND AGAINST	MOON CONJUNCT BASE SIGN (IC) Your natural creativity is inherited through your ancestral line. Your family provides a foundation or starting point to grow out from which is wonderful if you were born into a caring and supportive environment. Otherwise you might feel unable to create a safe and comfortable home base for yourself.

PLANET MERCURY

YOUR MIND, IDEAS & COMMUNICATION SKILLS

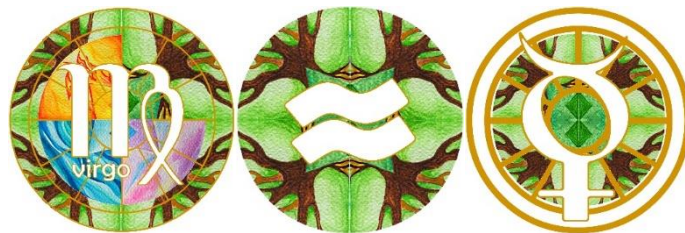

PLANET MERCURY in your birth chart tells you about your mind and the way it works, how you think and how you express your thoughts, how you absorb, process and interpret information.

Mercury describes your early learning experience and childhood links with siblings, school pals, teachers and mentors. It either aids or interferes with your ability to create key connections within your local community and neighbourhood.

Mercury also points to the Wheeler-Dealer in you and indicates how easy or difficult it is for you to market yourself, your views and your ideas.

MERCURY IN VIRGO

Element EARTH Quality MUTABLE Ruler PLANET MERCURY

YOUR MERCURY IN VIRGO has an especially strong influence in one of its own Zodiac Signs which suggests that you like to have all the facts and figures at your fingertips before you voice an opinion. You are rather modest about your ideas and can get anxious about expressing them. Precision is a priority as you worry about making mistakes and you do not like to get things wrong. You are quick at processing data and classifying information. You usually only need to be told something once, although you might be shy about admitting that you have not understood the facts the first time around. You would criticise your own comprehension skills before you questioned the way the material was communicated to you. You could find it difficult to say the word No in response to requests for your services. The thought of not being busy makes you nervous so you tend to say Yes to work, even though you have enough already. It is probably better for you to have too much to think about as your brain fills with nagging chatter if it does not have enough to keep it occupied.

VIRGO ELEMENT IS EARTH and QUALITY IS MUTABLE Your mental processes are flexible and efficient. You have a real skill for organising information and for processing facts and figures. You have good hand-eye coordination which helps you fulfil practical chores quickly and proficiently. You match techniques to tasks and you come up with systems to manage time effectively. You tend to be too modest about your own competence. Nagging concerns that you might not be able to meet the deadlines or standards you have set yourself will follow you from cradle to grave, from classroom to boardroom.

MERCURY IS STRONG IN ONE OF ITS OWN ZODIAC SIGNS VIRGO, emphasising your ability to communicate by processing and passing on information. Your administrative skills, your competence and your adaptability are reinforced. Mercury gives you the gift of efficiency and allows you to help others organise their lives more effectively.

YOUR EARLY ENVIRONMENT and EDUCATION Mercury's influence operating through the dutiful sign of Virgo suggests that your childhood environment has impressed you as industry-oriented. Its influence will lead you to see school as a place that prepares pupils for work. There is a certain amount of time allocated to play in the daily routine but activities are mainly geared towards processing information and acquiring skills, methods and techniques. You will be a conscientious pupil who worries if you think you are falling behind or not doing well enough and teachers should not have to nag you about handing your homework in on time. You might show a tendency to organise younger siblings, school pals and playmates or to help them with their work. You could feel shy around older and bolder children.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR MIND PLANET MERCURY

The house placement of your Mercury will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be most mentally active and fulfilled. Your ability to understand, process and communicate information will be expressed within this area of your life.

MERCURY IN 2ND HOUSE

This position of Mercury suggests that your ability to absorb, process and communicate information is a real asset. It is a resource that can be used to make your life more enjoyable, comfortable and fulfilling. You could have a knack for knowing which money-making schemes will pay off. You have a head for financial and material wealth creation. You will also have an eye for value when making acquisitions, and you are likely to notice items that are good long-term purchases because they are well made, or built to last.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING MERCURY reveal more about your communication skills, your early education and the community you grew up in.

 POSITIVE POTENTIAL	MERCURY SEXTILE VENUS Your ideas and communication skills are valuable resources that work to create material wealth and to enhance your enjoyment of life.
 POSSIBLE PITFALLS	MERCURY SQUARE MARS Your mind energy might be hyperactive. This could cause a tendency to jump to conclusions or to express opinions before taking the time to fully formulate your ideas.
 FOR AND AGAINST	MERCURY CONJUNCT PLUTO You have a deep, intense, complex and penetrating mind. Your ability to see through surface appearances gives you an uncanny knack for detecting the truth. But your thought process can be convoluted so that ideas become over-complicated and difficult to communicate. MERCURY CONJUNCT SOUTH NODE A tendency to rely on an ability to sell a story could delay or hold back your progress along your life path. But there's a well of clever communication skills for you to draw on that provides a starting point for your future development. It is possible that your soul memories and ancestral line history are influenced by issues involving the exchange of information.

PLANET VENUS

YOUR RELATIONSHIPS, RESOURCES & VALUES

PLANET VENUS in your birth chart tells you about your attitude to relationships and the type of partners you tend to be attracted to. Venus describes the most important relationship in your life – the one you have with Yourself.

The position of Venus in your birth chart reveals how well you value and esteem yourself and whether or not you think you deserve to receive the good things of life. Venus also defines your true talents and abilities – the natural resources which will help make your life more comfortable, enjoyable and satisfying.

The position of Venus in your birth chart describes your attitude towards Nature, art & beauty, abundance and material wealth. It also indicates how easy it is for you to enjoy life.

VENUS IN CANCER

Element WATER Quality CARDINAL Ruler THE MOON

YOUR VENUS IS IN CANCER, RULED BY THE MOON which suggests that your approach to relationships is sensitive and caring, although you may be shy of revealing your true feelings for fear of being hurt. You hide behind a shell of apparent coolness until you feel it is safe to show how deeply involved you are. In your heart, love and security are very closely linked. The more you love and are loved, the more secure you feel. You need to guard against getting involved with possessive people who cling to you, or immature types who demand that you nurture their every need. You could have a tendency to treat your partners like family members. If this is the case, you and your other half will begin to depend on each other for comfort and security. You may shy away from expressing the more dynamic aspects of your life together and your liaison could start to feel a bit too dull and domestic. Some form of shared creativity will be needed to rekindle the connection between you, otherwise it will retreat into a premature retirement.

YOU ARE DRAWN TO FEMALES who are creative, caring and protective but you are not so keen if their behaviour becomes self-defensive, moody or possessive.

CANCERIAN ELEMENT IS WATER and QUALITY IS CARDINAL You are looking for partners who are emotionally supportive and comfortable to be with. Your aim is to create a family feel within your relationships with others. Your personal and professional partnerships need to provide a caring atmosphere and there would have to be a creative focus to any joint goals or shared interests.

THE MOON IS RULER OF YOUR VENUS IN CANCER Its placement in your birth chart will influence your approach to partnerships with other people as well as your relationship with yourself. The position of the Moon helps to explain your attitude towards your own assets and resources - the talents and abilities you were born with.

YOUR VALUES, YOUR NATURAL ASSETS and RESOURCES Thanks to the Moon's influence, you are naturally resourceful, with assets inherited from your ancestral line that could be used to make your life fulfilling and materially secure. Providing for a family would be a strong motive for earning a living, but so would funding creative projects that are close to your heart. You value the tradition of passing on gifts from one generation to the next. You have an ability to foster talent in others, although you and your protégées could get too dependent on one another, or clingy with each other.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR RELATIONSHIP & RESOURCES PLANET VENUS

The house placement of your Venus will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most charming and sociable. Your natural assets – the talents and abilities you were born with - will be expressed through this area of your life, as will your gift for getting on with others.

VENUS IN THE 12TH HOUSE

This position of Venus suggests that you are a deeply romantic person with a sense of yearning for something you cannot see or touch with your physical body. It is as though you are connected to Beings from another plane of consciousness, and you can sense their presence but you cannot interact with them. They visit you while you are asleep, or in your daydreams but they fade away as you awake, leaving you lonely. Human relations pale into insignificance in comparison with their loving kindness. Their influence would probably be expressed via your imagination, and it could manifest as artistic ability. But the beautiful visions you experience in the dream state are difficult to relate in material terms and the comparison between fantasy and reality could disappoint you. If you can find forms of meditation or spiritual practice that help you to stay connected to your off-planet relations, you might begin to find it easier to dovetail your dream and waking states.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING VENUS reveal more about the influence of your relationships, values and natural resources - the talents & abilities you were born with.

 POSITIVE POTENTIAL	VENUS QUINTILE URANUS You possess remarkably original talents and abilities. You are a master of cutting edge artistry and style. VENUS TRINE NEPTUNE Your personal charm combined with your talent for entertaining could help you to create material wealth. Your affinity with natural beauty and your appreciation of artistic style are valuable resources that enrich and enhance your enjoyment of life. VENUS TRINE THE NORTH NODE Your talents and abilities will ease your progress along your Life Path. One to one relationships and partnerships are likely to play supportive roles along the way.
 POSSIBLE PITFALLS	VENUS SQUARE ERIS While peace is always preferred, there are times when diplomacy has been pushed to its limits and there's nothing left for you to do but fight, however unpleasant or uncomfortable it may be for you to do so.

PLANET MARS

YOUR ENERGY, AIMS & WILLPOWER

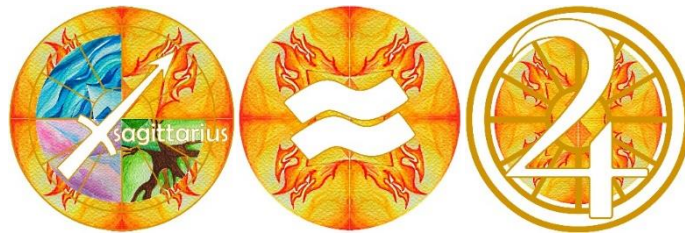

PLANET MARS in your birth chart explains how you identify objectives and then set out to achieve them. Mars also reveals how courageous, focussed, independent and insistent you are when it comes to winning goals and getting what you want.

Your birth chart Mars defines your levels of physical stamina and describes the ebb and flow of your energy. It indicates whether your strength and drive are mainly muscular, mental, emotional or spiritual. Mars points to what motivates and excites you as well as what irritates, angers and frustrates you.

MARS IN SAGITTARIUS

Element FIRE Quality MUTABLE Ruler PLANET JUPITER

YOUR MARS IS IN SAGITTARIUS, RULED BY PLANET JUPITER which suggests that your main motivation is adventure. Exploration and discovery are your two most thrilling themes. Give you a quest and you will want to start on it straight away. The promise of a journey fills you with anticipation and preparations for a trip energise and excite you. But this is the best stage of the experience for you. You tend to lose interest once you have reached your destination and you have achieved what you set out to do. Your stamina flags and you run out of steam. No sooner have you arrived, and you are already wondering where to go next. You like the targets you aim for to keep moving so they always stay out of reach, beyond the next horizon. You can be rather careless with your own welfare. You have such strong faith in the belief that everything will work out fine you forget to put basic safety measures in place. This position of Mars suggests that you could be particularly strong in the lower body and upper legs and may benefit from exercise that works the joints and muscles of the hip and thigh area.

YOUR LIST OF MOST DESIRABLE MALE ATTRIBUTES would include optimism and openness. You are repelled by reckless and sloppy behaviour in men.

SAGITTARIUS ELEMENT IS FIRE and QUALITY IS MUTABLE Your approach is keen and eager but can be slapdash. A new goal is a new adventure, and you set out towards it filled with enthusiasm. But when you reach a stage where the scenery gets samey and the pace stagnates, your stamina starts to drop. You will probably try to rush past this point, or circumnavigate it in a series of short cuts, thus missing out on potentially important details. There is not much sense in you trying to do work that calls for meticulous movements or repetitive actions. Large scale projects and free-wheeling activities are much better suited to your energy. You just have to be aware of a tendency to expect too much of yourself.

JUPITER IS RULER OF YOUR MARS IN SAGITTARIUS Its placement in your birth chart will influence your physical energy and stamina. The position of Planet Jupiter helps to explain what motivates you and how you approach the task of setting and achieving goals.

MARS ENERGY IN ACTION The high-octane blend of adventurous Jupiter and Sagittarius with go-getting Mars can be extremely courageous if rather reckless. You are an intrepid explorer who is very keen to travel off the beaten track, seeking new thrills and experiences and finding out just how far you can go.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR ACTION PLANET MARS

The house placement of your Mars will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most competitive and courageous. Your method of motivating yourself will be expressed through this area of your life, as will your way of setting and achieving goals.

MARS IN THE 5TH HOUSE

This position of Mars suggests that you are strongly self-motivated and you will enjoy expressing the more competitive side of your nature. Individual sports are probably a better choice for you than group activities, unless your position within the team allows you to use your initiative and drive.

You take an energetic approach to play, and you will prefer goal-oriented games that offer you the chance to win. You may have a tendency to compete with yourself and you should be encouraged to strive to be the best you are capable of. This will be a healthy channel for your willpower, which could become frustrated and depressed if you feel there is nothing worth aiming for. You will take an ardent approach to romance and you will be attracted to lovers who put up a fight before they give in. Your approach to parenting will be energetic and physical and you will thoroughly approve if your offspring display a competitive streak.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING MARS reveal more about the influence of your physical energy, your motivation, your willpower and your ability to get things done.

 POSITIVE POTENTIAL	MARS QUINTILE URANUS You have a remarkable talent for knowing what actions to take in situations of sudden and unpredictable change. You are a master of the art of rapid reaction. MARS TRINE ERIS Your independent and self-assertive attitude enhances your competitive energies to help you to win your goals. MARS TRINE RISING SIGN The more dynamic, motivated, goal-oriented aspects of your personality help to make a favourable first impression.

DWARF PLANET CERES YOUR CAPACITY FOR PRODUCING, PROTECTING & NURTURING

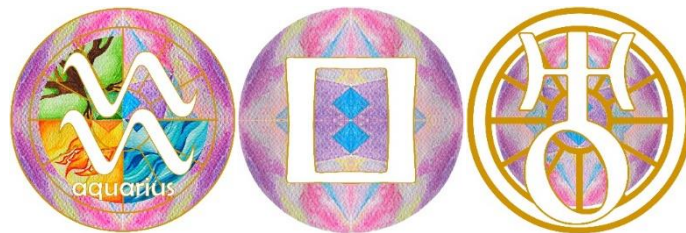

DWARF PLANET CERES is a minor or dwarf planet in the solar system orbiting between Mars and Jupiter. She was named after the Roman Goddess of fertility, farming and motherhood.

The birth chart position of Ceres shows how fertile and productive you are. It will offer information on how you express your creative skills naturally and organically.

Ceres describes how you demonstrate your concern for others and defines how you care for and nurture yourself. Its placement can reveal any issues you might have with taking food and nourishment. Ceres may also point to your potential as a green-fingered gardener.

CERES IN AQUARIUS Element AIR Quality FIXED Ruler PLANET URANUS

YOUR CERES IS IN AQUARIUS, RULED BY PLANET URANUS which suggests that you feel nurtured and supported in situations where you are allowed to express your inventiveness and individuality. You are at your most productive in roles where you are creating ground-breaking techniques that are designed to revolutionise current systems. Your unconventional attitude and innovative approach can help to foster originality in others.

CERES AND THE FOOD FACTOR Your attitude to food might be rather erratic as your appetite could tend to switch on and off without warning. You may be interested in humanitarian or social issues involving nutrition.

AQUARIUS ELEMENT IS AIR and QUALITY IS FIXED You are at your most fertile and productive when you are being original. To create is to innovate as far as you are concerned. You find the prototype stages of your projects the most fulfilling as they enable you to experiment with different ways of getting things off the ground. You are keen to implement ideas with the potential to modernise existing methods. You are looking to break with traditions and conventions that you feel will not be able to survive into the future.

PLANET URANUS IS RULER OF YOUR CERES IN AQUARIUS Its placement in your birth chart will influence your productivity and your approach to creative projects. The position of Uranus helps to explain how you express and fulfil the nurturing side of your nature.

CERES IN AQUARIUS - TRIBAL PROTECTOR Under the influence of Uranus and Aquarius, your urge to nurture will come to the fore in group settings. You will fill a protective role and you will probably be the one who seeds creative ideas into the collective consciousness of any team you are involved with. Connections with kindred spirits are a positive part of your life as they provide you with protection from any sense of not fitting in.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR PRODUCTIVE PLANET CERES

The house placement of your Ceres will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most fertile and fruitful. Your ability to conceive a project and nurture it through to completion will be expressed through this area of your life.

 CERES IN THE 6TH HOUSE	This position of Ceres suggests that you are a fertile and productive worker. You will probably take a creative approach to completing your chores or getting your duties done and will want to nurture your projects through from seed-stage to harvest time. You could show a natural interest in matters involving health and wellbeing, food preparation, nutrition and exercise regimes. You probably prefer a simple diet as your digestion is likely to be upset by rich food. You may take a protective attitude towards any colleagues or co-workers and display maternal tendencies towards animals. If you have pets, they are likely to be very well loved, fed and cared for.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING CERES reveal more about the influence of your fertility and productivity levels as well as your ability to give and receive nurturing.

 POSITIVE POTENTIAL	CERES TRINE JUPITER Your enjoyment in starting projects from scratch and nurturing them through from seed stage to fruition will help to make your life more productive and fulfilling. CERES TRINE URANUS Your interest in making things to

	your own design makes it easier for you to produce results that have a ground-breaking quality and an original edge. CERES TRINE PLUTO Your powerful and passionate creative impulse is guided by gut instincts and has the potential to reap very rich results. CERES QUINTILE ERIS You have a remarkable ability to protect and defend your creative projects against potential enemies or opponents. You may be a master of the art of battling for the rights of those who are too weak or vulnerable to stand up for themselves.
 POSSIBLE PITFALLS	CERES SQUARE MIDHEAVEN & BASE SIGNS The more possessive aspects of your personality could prevent you from achieving the professional ambitions and fulfilling the personal goals that you truly aspire to. You might have a sense of being driven by your urge to nurture and protect towards targets, both at home and out in the world, that are not what you really want for yourself.

PLANET JUPITER

YOUR ABILITY TO EXPLORE THE UNKNOWN AND TO MAKE THE MOST OF OPPORTUNITY & GOOD FORTUNE

PLANET JUPITER in your birth chart indicates your ability to maximise the potential of any opportunities and good fortune that come your way.

Jupiter describes how you explore the world around you and expand your knowledge according to the experience you gain. Its position in your horoscope explains how your belief systems are likely to influence your level of self-awareness as well as your progress through life.

Jupiter also defines your attitude to countries, cultures and customs which are foreign to your own and it shows where you are at your most philosophical, intelligent, generous, adventurous and optimistic.

JUPITER IN LIBRA

Element AIR Quality CARDINAL Ruler PLANET VENUS

YOUR JUPITER IS IN LIBRA, RULED BY PLANET VENUS which suggests that you attract opportunity thanks to your ability to charm others. This placement of Jupiter suggests that you have the potential to be very fortunate in your choice of partners. People are drawn to your laid-back approach and effortless style. You always seem so fair and ready to concede to views that differ from your own. What your colleagues may not realise is that you are an ace negotiator. While you appear to be doing what they want, you are actually persuading them to agree with you. You can cope with more serious issues within relationships, by helping to resolve conflict between opposing parties. Your diplomatic, counselling and consultancy skills are a great asset in situations which call for judgement, justice or mediation. You are so able in these areas because you find it easy to appreciate a wide range of perspectives. You completely understand that everything depends on where someone is coming from. You do not judge according to narrow belief systems or cultural customs. You simply attempt to evaluate a situation according to its own setting.

LIBRA ELEMENT IS AIR and QUALITY IS CARDINAL You are at your most positive and optimistic when you are discussing a favourite project. You are filled with enthusiasm when you think of all the options open to you. You are almost avoiding a final decision as it might feel like a let-down after the excitement of weighing up all those pros and cons. You will miss the consultation sessions with trusted allies and the array of opinions flying back and forth. You enjoy the process that leads you to your choices so much that you are almost disappointed when you actually have to make them.

PLANET VENUS IS RULER OF YOUR JUPITER IN LIBRA Its placement in your birth chart will influence your attitude to opportunity and your willingness to grow and develop by embarking on new experiences.

JUPITER IN LIBRA - LIVE AND LET LIVE The peace-loving influence of Venus-ruled Libra makes just Jupiter even more inclined to allow others the freedom of their own customs and convictions. You would find it difficult to deprive others of the right to live their lives as they choose, providing they are not causing harm to anyone else. But you might be inclined to put people on pedestals or give them credit for having potential they are not ready or able to express.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR JUPITER, PLANET OF PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

The house placement of your Jupiter will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most optimistic and open to opportunity. It will also show which area of your life offers the greatest potential for personal growth.

JUPITER IN THE 3RD
HOUSE

This placement of Jupiter suggests that you will attract opportunities from within your neighbourhood, or local community. This catchment area could be quite wide or large, but whatever its size, there are those living within it who are likely to respond positively to you and encourage your ventures. Your early learning experiences will teach you much more than your ABC, especially if you get to meet people from diverse cultures and backgrounds. Your confident, humorous style of communication makes you a successful networker, although your tendency to exaggerate and breeze over difficult details needs to be reined in.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING JUPITER reveal more about your willingness to grow, your levels of optimism and how you attract opportunities into your life.

 POSITIVE POTENTIAL	JUPITER TRINE SETTING SIGN The more optimistic and outgoing qualities within your personality have a positive effect on your relationships with others. You are probably drawn to relationships where both partners willingly help one another to expand their levels of knowledge and experience.
 POSSIBLE PITFALLS	JUPITER OPPOSING CHIRON Your tendency to over-empathise with the potential pain and suffering within a situation could put you in a position to be exploited, especially in your relationships with others. JUPITER OPPOSING ERIS There's a feisty edge to your urge for adventure which could turn aggressive if others appear to place limitations on your freedom to travel wherever you wish to go.
 FOR AND AGAINST	JUPITER CONJUNCT URANUS You are willing to seize the opportunity that unexpected change brings and to use it as a tool for evolutionary growth. Your adventurous attitude to risk-taking could be rather reckless and unconventional but it is also highly innovative. This contact between Jupiter and Uranus can point to the presence of the unpredictable, ground-breaking Genius Gene but it can also create a wide streak of eccentricity.

PLANET SATURN

YOUR ABILITY TO WORK WITH STRUCTURE & DISCIPLINE

PLANET SATURN in your birth chart defines your attitude towards authority and explains how you handle responsibility. It shows how ambitious and status-conscious you are.

Your horoscope Saturn describes how you cope with difficult circumstances, setbacks and frustrations (most of which are created by your own misgivings) and it points to any pessimistic doubts you have about your ability to achieve your goals in life.

Saturn indicates where you will be tested until you learn to overcome what you fear and therefore what restricts you. Saturn will reveal where you are at your most mature, patient and wise and also in which area or field you could eventually become an expert.

SATURN IN TAURUS

Element EARTH Quality FIXED Ruler PLANET VENUS

YOUR SATURN IS IN TAURUS RULED BY PLANET VENUS which suggests that you could underestimate your own resourcefulness and underrate the tangible talents you were born with. There is a danger that you might offer your gifts for less than they are worth, simply because you do not recognise or appreciate their actual value. You may be quite critical of your natural assets and you might not trust their ability to provide for your basic needs, let alone their capacity to make your life materially comfortable and secure. There could be a tendency to ignore your solid grasp of the simple fundamentals of making money while you compare yourself unfavourably with experts in the field of wealth creation. Even though this placement of Saturn suggests that you are a talented, able and committed financial manifestor, you may end up putting more effort into earning a living than you need to.

TAURUS ELEMENT IS EARTH and QUALITY IS FIXED You are at your most structured and disciplined when you are laying the foundations for long-term results. You appreciate the value of well-made plans in ensuring permanent and sustainable outcomes. You believe that the preparation stage is indispensable, must be done properly and cannot be rushed.

PLANET VENUS IS RULER OF YOUR SATURN IN TAURUS Its placement in your birth chart will influence your ability to achieve your ambitions, to handle responsibility and to cope with difficulties and delays.

SATURN IN TAURUS - TRADITIONAL and STABLE Saturn's respect for the tried and tested feels very comfortable with the way that Taurus and Venus value well-established customs. You will not be keen to alter anything that, in your opinion, would not benefit from being changed. You prefer to repair and restore what is already there rather than replacing or renewing it.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR YOUR SATURN, PLANET OF DUTY & RESPONSIBILITY

The house placement of your Saturn will help to explain in which situations you are likely to be at your most serious and mature, and also at your most ambitious and status conscious. It will also show which areas of your life tend to burden you with fear or doubt.

SATURN IN THE 10TH HOUSE

This position of Saturn suggests that you are tailor-made to make the commitment it takes to achieve your ambitions. You respect the process involved in climbing to the top and you know it will be time consuming and difficult in places. But it is almost as though your expectation that there will be obstacles and setbacks along the way clouds your confidence that you can gain your professional goals. Because you fear that you do not have what is required to reach the top you take criticism from authority figures within your industry very hard.

You tend to work for lifestyle goals which are defined by a sense of duty or responsibility or by the need to impress others. Even though you might feel professionally inadequate or unprepared, you stick to your long-term plan and this placement of Saturn eventually leads to a respected, even high-status, position of authority. But because you are often burdened by the pressure to meet your self-imposed high standards, it could take time for you to gain the success you seek.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING SATURN reveal more about the nature and origins of your doubts & fears, the type of life lessons you are likely to experience and how you will cope with them.

POSSIBLE
PITFALLS

SATURN SQUARE RISING & SETTING SIGNS Your innate ambition and sense of obligation towards achieving and maintaining successful outcomes in worldly terms could inhibit the fulfilment of your personal and relationship goals.

BIRTH CHART REPORT

THE OUTER (GENERATIONAL) PLANETS IN YOUR BIRTH CHART

Because the outer Planets take so long to orbit the Sun, their placements in zodiac signs are interpreted for your generation rather than on a personal level.

They are seen to influence your life directly through the Planetary Patterns and Horoscope Houses of your Birth Chart, and through their rulership of your personal planets and birth chart angles.

all placements and patterns are based on
your time, date & place of birth

ASTEROID CHIRON "The wound is the place where the Light enters you" Rumi.

Chiron is known as the Wounded Healer and it represents your capacity for healing yourself and for helping to heal others. The ability to heal extends to all life forms: mineral, plant, animal and human and includes the Planet itself. Chiron's position in your birth chart shows where you may have been wounded in the past, or what kind of wounded-ness (physical, mental, emotional or spiritual) might have been inherited through your ancestral line.

ARIES

You were born while Chiron was passing through Aries, the sign of independence and action. This suggests that your generation could be involved in healing the types of suffering that are caused by neediness, dependence, apathy and inertia. Because Aries energy can manifest as the urge to go it alone or to take a my way or the highway approach to life, this peer group may have a tendency to over-simplify complex health issues, or to ignore the importance of co-operation within the healing professions.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR CHIRON

The house placement of Chiron shows in which sphere of life you are likely to express empathy for pain and suffering. It will also point to ways in which you have been wounded - whether physically, mentally or emotionally - by life.

CHIRON IN
THE 9TH
HOUSE

This position of Chiron suggests that its influence will affect your ability to increase your levels of experience, knowledge and awareness. Your healing abilities and therapeutic talents expand and grow as you gain knowledge and experience of the world. It is possible that you may guide or mentor others as they develop their own healing potential.

If you have been through any kind of wounded-ness, the scars could stem from witnessing painful situations inflicted by philosophical, religious and cultural beliefs and your awareness of how much hurt they can cause. It could also be that, because you view life from such a high level perspective, it is difficult for you to find people who understand you, speak your language or appreciate where you are coming from, which might be distressing for you. If you have physical health problems, they could be in the thigh or hip area of your body or they may arise from issues with your liver function.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING CHIRON reveal more about your ability to give and receive healing.

 POSITIVE POTENTIAL	CHIRON TRINE RISING SIGN Your ability to empathise enhances the initial impression you make on others and helps all your partnerships, whether personal or professional, to work for you.
 POSSIBLE PITFALLS	CHIRON OPPOSING URANUS There could be a tendency for you to resist healing processes which involve the need to cut away from situations or circumstances that are major sources of pain or suffering. It may also be part of your evolutionary process to heal wounds caused by or involving the more original, unusual and unconventional aspects of your character.
 FOR AND AGAINST	CHIRON CONJUNCT ERIS You are ready to declare war on the wounds of the world and you are eager to join the battle against pain and suffering

PLANET URANUS "Everyone thinks of changing the world, but no one thinks of changing himself" Leo Tolstoy.

Uranus reveals what it is about you that is unique and points to the original features which make you different from everyone else. It describes your capacity for coping with change and defines your ability to evolve by adapting to sudden shifts in your situation or surroundings. The position of Uranus in your birth chart shows how and where you are at your most free-spirited and non-judgemental. Uranus can also flag up any tendency in you to rebel against established rules and regulations. The underlying source of your unwillingness to conform or co-operate could be a strong urge to reject standards and ideals that will never make sense to you.

URANUS IN LIBRA

You were born while Uranus was passing through Libra, the sign of collaboration and co-operation. This suggests that your generation may be involved in radical changes in gender identity, allowing for a less conventional definition of traditional male and female roles. Attitudes towards same-sex relationships could also be evolving, with wider tolerance for sexual equality, androgyny and transgender issues. As Libra energy can find it uncomfortable to rock boats and upset apple carts, this social group may have a tendency to give up on their more unorthodox ideas in order not to upset or outrage the old guard.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR URANUS

The house placement of Uranus shows in which area of your life you will be at your most unconventional, unorthodox, innovative and original. It will also point to ways in which you may be made to feel abandoned and excluded, or treated like a misfit because you are perceived to be different, and possibly even abnormal. The horoscope house for Uranus could provide important insight into your craving to connect with kindred spirits who share your interest and ideals.

URANUS IN THE 3RD HOUSE

This position of Uranus suggests that its influence will affect your communication style, your attitude to education and your early learning experiences. Your originality comes in the form of communication. You are a lateral thinker with plenty of outside-the-box ideas. You tend to rebel against conventional learning methods as they bore and restrict you.

You excel in subjects which call for improvisation or inventiveness. School uniforms are not your thing but if you are forced to wear them, you will adapt them to your own style. Relations with teachers, fellow pupils, school pals, playmates and siblings might be on-off affairs as you prefer to network with individuals who can keep up with your erratic but innovative thought processes.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING URANUS reveal more about your need for freedom and what is original and unconventional about you.

PLANET NEPTUNE "Not all dreamers are winners, but all winners are dreamers. Your dream is the key to your future"
Mark Gorman.

Neptune describes the sources of inspiration, dreams and visions that influence the choices you make. The compassionate planet's placement in your birth chart reveals how easy it is for you to empathise with others and sympathise with their situations. It can also warn against a tendency to be too sensitive and easily influenced by subtle, unseen energies and atmospheres. The birth chart position of Neptune unveils where you are at your most vulnerable and confused, and also how and where you are easily deceived or most likely to mislead those who believe in you.

NEPTUNE IN SCORPIO

You were born while Neptune was passing through Scorpio, the sign of regeneration. This suggests that your peer group could be involved in research into how to dissolve the bonds of physical degeneration and discover the Shangri-la of eternal beauty. But the clandestine, undercover nature of Scorpio and its manipulative energy could mean that this social group will also witness mass deception and deceit in the area of resource management and wealth investment.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR NEPTUNE

The house placement of Neptune shows in which realm of life you are at your most sensitive, imaginative and visionary. It can also indicate where you are likely to be deceived, or how your energies are most vulnerable to being vampired by those who wish to prey on your sympathy and compassion.

NEPTUNE IN THE 4TH HOUSE

This position of Neptune suggests that its influence will affect your personal life, your home and family and traits which have been inherited from your gene pool. Your ancestral line could contain characters who were sensitive or visionary, or who struggled to cope with the harsher aspects of life. There could also be a connection to the sea, or to seafaring activities and ventures.

You may have inherited imaginative abilities which might manifest as extrasensory powers or some form of creative artistry. You will probably be the dreamer within your family and you could have rather unrealistic expectations of home. You are vulnerable to negative atmospheres and you try to escape them by withdrawing into fantasy or fictional versions of life. People you grow up with could try to gain your sympathy for their own weaknesses, faults and failings. You should not be tempted to rescue them from the silly situations they have created for themselves.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING NEPTUNE reveal more about its visionary and inspirational role in your horoscope.

 POSITIVE POTENTIAL	NEPTUNE SEXTILE PLUTO Your ability to imagine and visualise is supported by your power to transform and regenerate. NEPTUNE TRINE NORTH NODE Your ability to tune into your imagination and work with your dreams and visions enables and enhances your progress on the journey along your Life Path.

PLANET PLUTO "The day the power of love overrules the love of power, the world will know peace." Mahatma Gandhi.

Pluto defines the extent of your personal power and shows how comfortable you feel about wielding it. The position of Pluto in your birth chart reveals the urge to seek challenges that help you overcome the weaker and less developed aspects of your character. Your mission is to transform into a more potent and effective version of yourself as you outgrow and shed the skins of earlier stages in your existence. Pluto symbolises tough but transformational experiences that may take you through the dark night of the soul but which enable you to rise triumphant, like a Phoenix from the ashes of trauma, trials & tribulations.

 PLUTO IN VIRGO	You were born while Pluto was passing through Virgo, the sign of health and wellbeing. This placement gives your generation an important role to play in the transformation of life expectancy. They may witness the introduction of skills and techniques that can regenerate physical fitness. But this social group will need to curb the neurotic tendencies of Virgo as they could cause deep-seated anxieties and unhealthy obsessions about degenerative diseases or age-related conditions.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR PLUTO

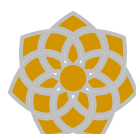

The house placement of Pluto reveals in which area of life you will be at your most powerful and intense. It may show where you prefer to be private, or to keep things undercover until you are ready to disclose or expose them. It could also point to ways in which you tend to sabotage yourself out of a sense of guilt or shame – usually because you are taking the blame for something that is not your fault.

PLUTO IN THE 2ND HOUSE

This position of Pluto suggests that its influence will affect your ability to generate wealth, comfort, abundance and enjoyment. Your capacity for coping with challenge is a valuable asset which can be used to enrich your life and make it more fulfilling. Your talent for confronting tough situations and getting to grips with their root causes could provide a means of earning a living. This position of Pluto indicates that you may take a rather obsessive or controlling approach to financial security. For you, material wealth represents power and gives you the ability to stay in control of your own destiny. Although deep down you realise that it is your own aptitude for staying strong under pressure which is worth far more than money in the bank.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING PLUTO reveal more about its role in helping you to express your personal power.

FOR AND AGAINST

PLUTO CONJUNCT SOUTH NODE Your default position might be to make life more complicated than it needs to be. A tendency to get over-involved and to be far too controlling and intense about everything could interfere with your future development.

DWARF PLANET ERIS "To know oneself, one should assert oneself." Albert Camus. Eris shows how assertive you are and how capable you are of standing up for yourself. The position of Eris in your birth chart points to how and where you will need to fight against the destructive forces of aggression, rivalry and revenge within your character.

ERIS IN ARIES

SEVERAL GENERATIONS HAVE AND WILL BE BORN WITH ERIS IN ARIES

The People of Planet Earth are moving between a primitive, war-like state of consciousness to a more enlightened level of awareness. As the true horror and cost of war is dawning on us, we begin to realise that we can continue to be self-assertive without causing so much death and destruction. You have joined an evolutionary process which is beginning to view competition as a tool for self-improvement rather than as a means of basic survival.

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSE FOR ERIS

The house placement of Eris highlights the area of life you will be at your most feisty and assertive. It could also indicate where and how you tend to become angry and get drawn into conflicts.

ERIS IN THE 9TH HOUSE

This position of Eris suggests that its influence will affect your ability to increase your levels of experience, knowledge and awareness. You take an assertive approach to self-development. You are prepared to fight for your beliefs, for your right to travel freely and for access to a higher education. You might explore the reasons for clashes between cultures so you can understand why they tend to turn aggressive and escalate into wars.

PLANETARY PATTERNS, ASPECTS AND CONTACTS INVOLVING ERIS

reveal more about its role in helping you to assert yourself effectively, without having to resort to aggression.

POSITIVE POTENTIAL

ERIS TRINE RISING SIGN (ASCENDANT) Your feisty, self-assertive attitude will help you to impress others and persuade them to offer support for your personal goals.

RISING & SETTING SIGNS PERSONALITY & RELATIONSHIPS

Also known as your Ascendant and Descendant, these signs are the sections of the zodiac which were rising in the east and setting in the west at the time of your birth, in the place of your birth. They play an important role in the way you project your personality and the manner in which you approach your relationships with others.

LEO RISING SIGN (ASCENDANT) Your personality comes across as confident and charismatic. You enter a room as though you were the star of the show and, even if you are shy or suffer from stage fright, your energy and presence make an impact. Generally, you take a bright and sunny approach to life and you give the initial impression of being at home in the spotlight. But your self-assured demeanour can drop in situations where you are not receiving the praise and attention you feel entitled to.

AQUARIUS SETTING SIGN (DESCENDANT) You are looking for partners who value your personal freedom and individuality almost as much as their own. They do not make too many demands on you, as they are perfectly capable of looking after themselves. Your ideal associations are with kindred spirits and are based on mutual respect and shared interests. Roles within your relationships are defined by suitability rather than by convention. You are drawn to people who are not afraid to be original, and who do not need the approval of others in order to validate themselves.

RULERS OF YOUR RISING & SETTING SIGNS

THE SUN IS RULER OF YOUR RISING SIGN (ASCENDANT) IN LEO Its placement in your birth chart will influence the way you experience, react and respond to the world around you. The position of the Sun affects the way you project your personality and the impression you make on other people when they first meet you.

PLANET URANUS IS RULER OF YOUR SETTING SIGN (DESCENDANT) IN AQUARIUS Its placement in your birth chart will influence your relationship choices and describe the type of partners you are likely to be attracted to. The position of Uranus gives information about the kind of collaborations you are ideally suited to, as well as those that are unlikely to serve your best interests.

MIDHEAVEN & BASE SIGNS PROFESSIONAL & PERSONAL GOALS
Also known as your MC and IC, these signs are the sections of the zodiac which were directly overhead the place of your birth and directly overhead on the opposite side of the world at the time of your birth. They play an important role in your choice of professional and personal goals.

ARIES MIDHEAVEN SIGN (MC) You will be drawn to vocations that allow you to act on your own initiative. Your entrepreneurial flair and ability to motivate yourself should help you to achieve your ambitions, and could make you the ideal candidate for self-employment. You may also excel in corporate environments when you are given specific goals and targets and where the atmosphere is overtly competitive. You will respond positively to no-nonsense instructions from authorities who have gained your respect. You would not do so well under bosses who waste your time because they cannot provide clear directions.

LIBRA BASE SIGN (IC) You need a charming, attractively decorated home base with a harmonious atmosphere. Ideally there will be someone nice to share it with as you prefer a partnership situation and would rather not live alone. Your personal space should reflect your own sense of style. It should not include any articles, colours, noises or smells that offend your artistic tastes.

BIRTH CHART REPORT

THE PATH OF THE MOON'S NODES

"It is good to have an end to journey toward
But it is the journey that matters, in the end"
Ursula le Guin

The Moon's Nodes in your birth chart represent your Life Path and describe your evolutionary journey here on Planet Earth. You are travelling from the South Node towards the North Node. The South Node could be seen as a place that you have already visited. You have acquired skills, experience, lessons, memories and impressions while being there that will stay with you forever. They have become part of who you now are. You are ready for your next learning curve, which will take you along the unfamiliar path that leads to your North Node.

As this next step of your journey unfolds you will undergo new adventures which will encourage you to develop facets of your character that are as yet undiscovered. Because these unknown parts of yourself are just beginning to emerge, you will not feel sure of them. The tendency will be to fall back on what you do know, and what you can do. But life will keep reminding you that you do not want to stay in the South Node. You wish to progress to the North Node, collecting all the knowledge, experience, potentials and possibilities that are offered to you along the way.

YOUR JOURNEY ACROSS THE ZODIAC FROM VIRGO TO PISCES

coming from SOUTH NODE IN VIRGO You know how to process factual information. You can classify and organise data in practical terms. The time has come for you to relax your conscious awareness and allow the slightly chaotic influence of your imagination to take control. Information will begin to flow intuitively. You will start to pay as much attention to what you sense and feel as you do to what you think and hear. You will find yourself understanding and saying things you did not know you knew. Mind-blowing messages might be delivered while you are asleep, dreaming or meditating. You will gradually learn to trust their source and decipher their meaning. You will become fluent in the symbolic languages of synchronicity, imagery and impression.

POSSIBLE PAST LIFE & ANCESTRAL LINE ISSUES You may carry soul memories of lifetimes which were concerned with being enslaved or in low-paid service positions. It is also possible you are influenced by ancestral line experiences of healing work, or behind the scenes administrative roles. There may be a connection to farming or working with domestic animals.

moving towards NORTH NODE IN PISCES You are developing the ability to trust your intuition and to rely on your psychic awareness. You are used to dealing with data which comes in the form of practical instructions that can be followed in a series of logical steps. Now you have to learn the language of symbols and to decipher the codes contained in dreams and visions. You will gradually begin to understand the apparently random patterns of information that ebb into your imagination without needing to analyse them at a conscious level. You will no longer feel compelled to explain the synchronicities, images and impressions that flow through your metaphysical mind.

RULERS OF YOUR NORTH & SOUTH NODES

PLANET NEPTUNE IS RULER OF YOUR NORTH NODE IN PISCES Its placement in your birth chart will influence the nature and direction of your Life Journey and its evolutionary path. The position of Neptune also gives information about the purpose of your present life experience.

PLANET MERCURY IS RULER OF YOUR SOUTH NODE

	IN VIRGO Its placement in your birth chart helps to explain the influence of your ancestral line within your current lifetime. The position of Mercury also gives information about the strengths and weaknesses you have inherited via your gene pool, from the generations who went before you.
--	--

THE HOROSCOPE HOUSES CONTAINING YOUR NORTH & SOUTH NODES reveal in which area of life you already have plenty of experience and the direction towards which you now need to channel your energies. There will probably be a tendency to fall back on what has gone before, because the ground feels so familiar. But it is important to your personal growth that you push forward into territory that is not so well known to you, so that you can continue to progress, develop and evolve.

YOUR JOURNEY ACROSS THE HOROSCOPE FROM 2ND TO 8TH HOUSE

coming from SOUTH NODE IN THE 2ND HOUSE OF NATURAL TALENTS, RESOURCEFULNESS & WEALTH CREATION

You are an accomplished earner and you are used to relying on your natural talents to create material wealth. The time has come for you to move beyond the simple strategy of making a wage to the more complex world of resource management. You are learning how to follow your instincts and intuition regarding how where and when to invest your assets so that their value is held and their worth is strengthened.

POSSIBLE PAST LIFE & ANCESTRAL LINE ISSUES You could be dealing with influences from previous incarnations which involve material wealth or the lack of it. There may be soul memories of situations where the basic ability to earn money was over-valued, and where true talents and abilities which could have been invested more profitably went unrecognised. Endurance, patience and perseverance could have been necessary qualities to the survival of some individuals within your ancestral line.

moving towards NORTH NODE IN THE 8TH HOUSE OF INHERITANCE, INVESTMENT & INSTINCTIVE AWARENESS

This position of the North Node suggests that while generating material wealth comes easily to you, you may not yet have figured out how to manage your assets. At present your resources are focussed on creating a comfortable living but you will gradually learn how to invest your earnings and intensify their value, making them more profitable. You are in the process of understanding how to use senses that go beyond the purely physical. Instead of ignoring your gut instincts and dismissing them as fanciful, you will begin to trust them and start to follow their wisdom & warnings.

ENERGY PATTERNS & FORMATIONS IN YOUR BIRTH CHART

The energy patterns in your birth chart show how different aspects of your character can enhance each other by working together in harmony or fight with one another by getting into conflict or competition. The level of agreement or disagreement within your planetary patterns will affect how easy or difficult it is for you to fulfil your potential.

The energy formations in your birth chart highlight build-ups and surges of power which can work for you or against you, depending on how you choose to engage with them.

all placements and patterns are based on
your time, date & place of birth

STELLIUM

This is when there are several planets grouped together in one sign of the Zodiac or one area of the horoscope. This shows a concentration of energy that will have a marked influence within your birth chart. There is an investment in specific characteristics, concerns or interests which could well dominate over any other factors, depending on the planets involved.

- ★ STELLIUM IN VIRGO a strong focus on the most organised and efficient of the Zodiac Signs increases the importance of daily routines, rituals and practices within your life experience.
- ★ STELLIUM IN 2ND HOUSE emphasises the role of your fundamental values, your natural resourcefulness and your appreciation and enjoyment of your own talents and abilities.

GRAND CROSS

This is a very dynamic pattern which creates drive, drama and a certain amount of difficulty due to your urge to fulfil goals in competing areas of your life. You may also be motivated by the need to impress – yourself more than anyone! Things might not come easily to you, but you develop willpower, resourcefulness, resilience and determination as you continue to pass tests, confront challenges and overcome obstacles.

- ★ GRAND CROSS IN FIXED SIGNS brings levels of loyalty, intensity and determination that create endurance and perseverance, but which can lead to burn-out.

GRAND TRINE

This is when three factors in your birth chart create a triangle made up of 3 x 120-degree angles. This pattern brings a sense of unforced flow, where things happen naturally. Grand trines are thought to show in-born talent and ability but they can create the impression that, because everything comes so easily, there is no point in pushing or striving for results. They can also indicate a reluctance to climb out of cosy comfort zones.

- ★ GRAND TRINE IN FIRE SIGNS boosts general levels of courage, spontaneity, energy and enthusiasm creating a flow of natural confidence and bounce which helps to maintain a positive, adventurous attitude.

- ★ GRAND TRINE IN WATER SIGNS gives easy access to the four Is: Imagination, Intuition, Instinct & Inspiration. Going with the flow comes naturally to you as you are guided by ethereal energies and carried along by unseen forces which deliver you to your destination.

 KITE FORMATION	People with this pattern in their birth chart tend to be high flyers but they are motivated by the sheer enjoyment which comes from working with their talents and abilities to achieve the level they aspire to. They are looking to inspire rather than to impress others.
--	---

- ★ KITE FORMATION IN EARTH & WATER SIGNS combines easy access to imagination, intuition, instinct & inspiration with a natural ability to cope in real-life situations.
- ★ KITE FORMATION IN FIRE & AIR SIGNS combines an enthusiastic and positive attitude with an aptitude for processing information, learning and communicating.

 MYSTIC RECTANGLE	This pattern suggests you are working with your talents and using your abilities with a view to create harmony and balance, both for yourself and for others.

- ★ MYSTIC RECTANGLE IN FIRE AND AIR SIGNS enables enthusiasm and rational thinking to work well together. The potential is to be motivated by ideas and to feel passionate about seeking and spreading true knowledge.

THE FOUR ELEMENTS IN YOUR BIRTH CHART

FIRE EARTH AIR WATER

The balance of elements in your birth chart influences your character and the way you live your life. If there is an emphasis of one element in your horoscope, you will take it for granted. You will be able to use it naturally, without any deliberate effort on your part and almost without being aware that you are doing so. The lack of an element might make you try to compensate for its absence by over-stressing it in some way. You could be attracted to people who embody the energies of your missing element and display them very strongly.

YOU HAVE PERSONAL PLANETS IN ALL FOUR ELEMENTS

 FIRE ELEMENT	ZODIAC SIGNS ARIES, LEO & SAGITTARIUS PLANETS IN FIRE SIGNS <ul style="list-style-type: none">★ SUN IN LEO★ MARS IN SAGITTARIUS

The element of Fire helps you to be energetic, enthusiastic, assertive and adventurous. It fuels and supports your ability to express your individuality and independence.

An emphasis on fire signs in your birth chart would make you naturally energetic. You have plenty of initiative, vitality and self-confidence. Self-promotion should come easily to you as it is not difficult for you to put yourself forward or to ask for attention. Self-motivation should not be a problem unless your confidence levels are low, or your self-belief has been undermined in some way.

But while Fire provides courage, incentive and drive its energy can also be immature, selfish, demanding and arrogant. Fiery planets can cause behaviour that is reckless, restless & impatient.

If you find it difficult to engage with and express fire energy at any time or for any reason, you may struggle to prioritise your own goals, to act independently or to take the initiative. It could be a push to promote yourself and you may need training in marketing techniques. You might find it hard to be spontaneous, or to do things on the spur of the moment. You may be too shy or self-conscious to ask for attention or to do things simply because you know they are right for you.

 EARTH ELEMENT	ZODIAC SIGNS TAURUS, VIRGO & CAPRICORN PLANETS IN EARTH SIGNS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ★ MERCURY IN VIRGO ★ SATURN IN TAURUS

The element of Earth helps you to deal with real life situations. It fuels your ability to function on a practical level. It provides stability and enables you to relax and enjoy life's physical pleasures.

While Earth provides common sense and continuity its energy can be dull, dutiful, cautious and conventional. It can also make you much too concerned with material matters and overly strict about social status.

An emphasis on earth signs in your birth chart would give a sensible streak and a down-to-earth attitude. You do not doubt your ability to find functional solutions to most problems, especially when you are dealing with everyday issues. Your talents come in handy when there is something that needs sorting out, or when material matters are in a mess.

If you find it difficult to engage with and express earth energy at any time or for any reason, you might find it difficult to value your natural talents or to appreciate your ability to cope with worldly matters. You may struggle to stick to schedules and follow timelines unless you understand their importance to you personally. You could find it hard to exist on an "ordinary" level. You may try to be super organised in an effort to create a sense of stability in your life.

The element of Air helps you to process, interpret and communicate information. It fuels your ability to speak, write and learn. Air is important for getting ideas across to others and for understanding what they are thinking or talking about.

But while Air offers clarity and perspective, its energy can be rather robotic, analytical, cold and uncaring. It can make you a bit too dependent on facts and figures and dismissive of data which flows from your emotions, instincts and imagination.

An emphasis on air signs in your birth chart would give you a natural aptitude for communication. Good at processing information, it is easy for you to absorb data and to pass on what you have learned. You are also able to make connections between thoughts, ideas and abstract concepts, which makes you a skilled networker, negotiator and innovator.

If you find it difficult to engage with and express air energy at any time or for any reason, it will be more difficult for you to trust your intellectual ability. You may struggle with conventional learning methods. You could feel inadequate or inhibited when you try to express your thoughts or share your viewpoint with people you perceive to be more educated or intelligent than you. You might have a tendency to over-analyse information and to doubt your communication skills.

 WATER ELEMENT	ZODIAC SIGNS CANCER, SCORPIO & PISCES PLANETS IN WATER SIGNS <ul style="list-style-type: none">★ MOON IN SCORPIO★ VENUS IN CANCER

The element of Water helps you to dream – to be imaginative, visionary, intuitive and inspirational. It fuels your ability to be guided by your gut instincts. It enables you to express empathy for others. It gives access to psychic powers which transcend the boundaries of time and space.

But Water energy can cause over-sensitive reactions, turbulent feelings, uncontrollable mood swings and irrational, unreliable behaviour.

An emphasis on water signs would make you emotionally expressive. You experience the world through your imagination, instincts and intuition. It comes naturally to you to empathise with others as you find it easy to identify with their characters and circumstances. So long as your goals provide you with emotional satisfaction you will flow along, supported by your own feelings of fulfilment.

If you find it difficult to engage with and express water energy at any time or for any reason, you might struggle to deal with strong feelings, which can overwhelm and confuse you. There could be a tendency to over-analyse emotional issues rather than allowing yourself to experience them. You may be reluctant to trust the wisdom that flows to you from your dreams and visions, instincts and intuition. You could feel that academic knowledge is more valid than the information you receive from your imagination.

THE THREE QUALITIES IN YOUR BIRTH CHART
CARDINAL FIXED MUTABLE

The balance of qualities in your birth chart influences your energy and the way you express it. If there is an emphasis of one quality in your horoscope, you will take it for granted and use it without being aware that you are doing so. You will be able to express it naturally, without any deliberate effort on your part. If you lack a quality or qualities, you may strive to compensate for their absence, or be drawn to people who display them very obviously.

YOU HAVE PERSONAL PLANETS IN ALL THREE QUALITIES

Cardinal energy helps you to stay active and goal-oriented and keeps you motivated. It fuels and supports your ability to start moving towards your targets and to plan for successful outcomes.

But Cardinal quality can create impatience when results do not roll in as quickly as you expect them to. And there is a tendency to feel very frustrated if things do not turn out quite the way you hoped they would. This is when disappointment can turn to depression, making you feel that all your hard work has been pointless, and a total waste of time.

An emphasis on Cardinal signs would make you very keen to win, regardless of any obstacles and delays you have to deal with. You take them in your stride and do not allow them to prevent you from gaining your goals. A strong competitive streak will ensure that you are constantly comparing yourself with rivals in your field. They provide you with targets to test yourself against.

If you find it difficult to engage with and express this quality at any time or for any reason, you might struggle to identify aims and objectives. You could find the process of motivating yourself, getting started on projects or initiating actions to achieve your ambitions very stressful. Frustration could force you to push yourself to pursue goals which might not be the right ones for you.

Fixed energy helps you in situations which demand patience, persistence, tenacity and trust. It fuels and supports your ability to stick at something until you have taken it as far as you want to go.

But Fixed energy can make you stubborn, inflexible and intolerant of situations you do not identify with or where you cannot control, manage or direct everything and everyone involved.

An emphasis on Fixed signs would make you strong and stable. Once you have pledged your loyalty to a cause, your commitment is unquestionable. You are prepared to wait for results which match your standards and values. You believe that anything which is truly worth doing or having involves long-term effort and devotion.

If you find it difficult to engage with and express this quality at any time or for any reason, you might not be able to plan for the longer term, or to stay committed to your causes. You may struggle in situations that call for a slower pace or which demand intense involvement and undivided attention. There could be a tendency to over-compensate for this missing quality by trying to control outcomes rather than having the patience to let them unfold in their own time.

Mutable energy helps you to move with changing circumstances and keep all your options open. It fuels and supports your ability to multi-task and to vary your way of working.

But it can also cause a tendency to lose focus, to get distracted, to fritter energy, or to spread resources too thinly. Your progress may be entirely defined by shifting objectives, temporary measures and your inability to stick to the point.

An emphasis on Mutable signs would make you extremely adaptable. It is easy for you to settle into most situations, even when you know they are very short term. You are interested in a multitude of matters, and your ability to pick up information quickly and efficiently means that you do not have to hang around for long before you get the gist of whatever scenario or circumstance you find yourself in.

If you find it difficult to engage with and express this quality at any time or for any reason, coping with change could be very stressful for you. You may struggle to accept adjustments to existing plans or to diversify from your current situation, lifestyle or methods of doing things. A reluctance to make provision for unforeseen events would mean that they take you by surprise and unsettle you. An unwillingness to embrace all things unfamiliar could mean you miss out on finding more efficient or enjoyable ways of getting things done.

“I am me. And that should be enough, it always has been enough. I was the one who didn’t get that. And now I do. I’m an actor, I’m a writer. I’m a person. And a good one at that.

I want good things for myself, and others, and I can continue to work for these things. There is a reason I’m still here. And figuring out why is the task that has been put in front of me. ...

Now when I wake up, I wake up curious, wondering what the world has in store for me, and I for it. And that’s enough to go on.”
